Stone House Day
In New Paltz Is Set August 7th

Program Is Scheduled
From 10 to 6 With Pageant, Other Features

The fourth annual observance of Stone House Day, under auspices of the Reformed Church, will be held in New Paltz, Saturday, Aug. 7, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m., featuring the old dwellings in their original state as built by the French Huguenots in the 17th century.

Other features of the eight hour program will be display of documents, filled with family history, traditions, folklore and a pageant bringing to life the Catherine DuBois legend about how the Huguenots first saw the rich valley they settled, after a rescue that saved women and children from the Esopus Indians.

Houses to Be Open

Five of the stone houses to be open for public inspection include the Freer House, Abraham Hasbrouck House, the Fort (Daniel DuBois House), Joan Hasbrouck House (Memorial House-Museum), and the Bever-Elting House. The first frame house, built by Lucas Van Wageningen (now owned by the Jamison Foundation) will also be open and offer a local art exhibit.

An admission charge will be collected at the gate on Huguenot street, the locale of the properties.

The day's schedule has been announced by the Reformed Church committees as follows: Opening at 10 a. m. for public inspection of houses, the Fort and church, which was built in 1838.

Light refreshments from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.
Lunch from 12 noon to 2 p. m.
Catherine DuBois pageant 2:15 to 3 p. m.

There will be a narrator for the pageant, done in tableau, with background music by the Reformed Church choir.

Story of Rescue
The play is based on the story of the women and children (many of them Huguenots) who were taken captive when the

'Angel' Is Guest
At Capital Party

French Nurse Acclaimed
for Heroic Work
in Indochina

By RUTH COWAN
Washington, July 28 (AP)—The party was gay and the "Angel" had a fine time. But she didn't dance.

Miss Genevieve de Galard-Ter-raube explained she just couldn't. The dismal battle of Dien Bien Phu was too close.

Miss de Galard is the 29-year-old French nurse acclaimed as the "Angel of Dien Bien Phu" for her heroic work in the dying days of the brave Vietnamese fortress before it fell to the Communists of Indochina.

Many of the men she nursed in 41 days cut off by war from the outside world still are prisoners of the Reds.

She's in this country now for a 19-day visit at the invitation of Congress. She had a couple of television dates this morning and some other official engagements in the capital, which welcomed her warmly yesterday.

Gayest Since Release
The affair last night was the gayest she has attended in the weeks since her release from Dien Bien Phu. It was a buffet dance at Andrews Air Force Base for cadets from 22 countries here in the Civil Air Patrol's in-

Gambler Says He Gave
Cash to Hudson Officials

Haver Represents Nine Suspended Men —
Allegations Bring Quick Demands

Hudson, July 28 (AP)—A convicted gambler has maintained under oath that he gave sums of money during 1949 and 1950 to two former Columbia county officials, a former Hudson mayor and the city's present corporation counsel.

Benjamin Goldstein, testifying yesterday at the departmental trial of nine suspended policemen, named the recipients as Corporation Counsel Charles G. Alonge, former Mayor Earl J. Colwell, former Sheriff Milton V. Saulpaugh and former District Attorney Thomas P. Kennedy.

Haver Is Counsel

Attorney N. LeVan Haver of Kingston is representing the nine suspended policemen. Alonge is acting as prosecutor during the trial.

Goldstein's allegations brought immediate denials, and demands from two of the former officials that they be permitted to refute Goldstein's testimony under oath.

Police Commissioner Roger W. Bliss, who is presiding at the trial, said that those who requested the opportunity to testify would be allowed to do so before the trial ended. He did not set a specific date.

Claims $400 Paid
Goldstein testified he had paid $400 a month each to Saulpaugh and Colwell, while the gambler was operating a floating crap game in Hudson. He said he had paid Kennedy several hundred dollars during the same period.

Alonge, he testified, had received $500, a sum he said he had relayed to the corporation counsel from Marcus Seigel, who was convicted in New York city in a baby adoption racket. Goldstein described the alleged payment as "good will" money.

Alonge said in a statement: "If anyone wishes to inject my name into these proceedings, they are certainly perfectly at liberty to do so. However, I want to make this one thing crystal clear and that is I absolutely will not be deterred from performing my sworn duty to the citizens of the city of Hudson."

Sams' Estate Appraised
New York, July 28 (AP)—Earl C. Sams, former president of the J. C. Penney Co., left a net estate of $9,340,468, of which $3,799,786 goes to charity, according to an estate tax appraisal yesterday at the state building. Gross assets amounted to $9,758,548, principally in securities valued at $6,752,987. The list included 121,167 shares of the Penney Company stock, valued at $6,197,226. Sams, who died July 23, 1950, left his home at 460 Beechmont Drive, New Rochelle, appraised at $85,000, to the New Rochelle Hospital, and a residuary interest in his estate, amounting to $3,714,786, to the Earl C. Sams Foundation, Inc., for charitable purposes.

Miss Jacobs Is in Coma
New York, July 28 (AP)—Helene Jacobs, 19, Chicago coed survivor of an apparent suicide pact with a New Jersey girl, remained in a coma and in a critical condition today. Her physicians at Roosevelt Hospital said she had not regained consciousness, even briefly, since she was found in a combination art gallery and apartment a week ago today. Helene's father, Chicago labor lawyer Joseph W. Jacobs, and her mother have been at her bedside almost constantly since they flew here late Wednesday after police notified them.

Diplomas Ready
It was announced today by Theron L. Culver, principal, that graduates of Kingston High School, who did not receive their diplomas in June, may call for them at the school office.

Ellender Is Winner in Louisiana

McClellan Has Lead
in Arkansas — Gary Wins Nomination in Oklahoma

(By The Associated Press)

Sen. Allen J. Ellender coasted to a fourth term in Louisiana's Democratic primary yesterday, and Sen. John L. McClellan (D.-Ark.) held a slender majority against his first opposition in 12 years.

The Democratic nomination in either state is tantamount to election.

McClellan, his bespectacled face a familiar sight to television viewers of the Senate's McCarthy-Army inquiry, bid strong to wreck the comeback attempt of former Gov. Sid McMath. McClellan helped beat McMath's bid for re-election as governor two years ago.

Although leading McMath by a good margin, McClellan's majority was shaved by votes going to two other candidates. Failure to poll a majority would postpone a decision on McClellan's third-term try until a runoff with McMath Aug. 10.

Tally of Votes

Nearly complete unofficial returns gave McClellan 155,000; McMath 120,785; Paul Chambers 28,609, and Leonard Ellis 2,900. McClellan's majority was 2,726.

Ellender won over two opponents in Louisiana, reaping a big margin in rural districts though losing New Orleans. The state's biggest city gave a hometown nod to Frank B. Ellis, Democratic national committeeman and Ellender's No. 1 opponent.

Late returns gave Ellender 252,815; Ellis 154,008, and State Rep. Gilbert Fault 19,527.

In Oklahoma's runoff primary yesterday, State Sen. Raymond Gary won the Democratic nomination for governor, topping William O. Coe by 17,000 votes. But a major upset saw Lt. Gov. James E. Berry turned out of office for the first time in 20 years. Berry's try for a sixth term was spoiled decisively by Cowboy Pink Williams, a rancher whose fame was built on a strange name and a tongue-in-cheek battle with post office officials over "obscene" political cards.

Cards Brought Publicity
Williams' meteoric rise to the public eye began when the Post Office Department cracked down on postal card invitations he mailed to cattlemen during last year's drought when livestock prices were low.

He invited "all those who voted for Ike" to a free kicking in a certain spot and a free barbecue "with all the crow you can eat" the "day after your are foreclosed."

Postal officials rejected Williams' explanation he meant a "donkey kicking," not a part of the anatomy, ruled the cards were obscene and has since impounded his mail.

Both Gary and Williams trailed in the first primary—Williams by 70,000—but came back with the strength to win in the runoff.

The U. S. State Department congressmen seemed assured of renomination, though Rep. Harris (D.-Ark.) was pressed.

In Arkansas, Gov. Francis Cherry appeared headed for a runoff with Orval Faubus, week-

Newburgh Man
Held on Charge

Clyde Caston, 33, of 12 Broad street, Newburgh, father of six children, was arrested today by Corporal John Metzger of the B.C.I. and Trooper Michael Lisman on a charge of assault growing out of an affair involving two Newburgh girls last Monday.

The warrant charged Caston with assault, second degree, it being charged that on the night of July 26 he picked up two young girls at Tillson Lake and started to take them home.

State Police said en route he attempted to "ravage" one of the girls, bruised her and tore her clothing. One girl escaped and ran away to make a complaint to the state police. Trooper Lisman responded and made an investigation, which resulted in the issuance of the assault warrant.

Arraigned before Justice Seth Lippincott of Walkkill the defendant waived examination and was held for grand jury action and brought to jail.

President's Tariff Action
Brings Domestic Praise

Washington, July 28 (AP)—President Eisenhower has raised the tariff on many watches manufactured abroad but a spokesman for U. S. watchmakers says most Americans will still buy Swiss imports.

The President's decision nonetheless was received with pleasure by the domestic industry.

Eisenhower announced the first major tariff boost of his administration late yesterday. Effective today except on shipments already in transit and cleared through customs by Aug. 26, it hikes the duty as much as 50 per cent on watches with no jewels or no more than 17 jewels.

The effect will be to raise imported watch prices $3.50 to $5.

The Federal Tariff Commission had recommended the increase. It said heavy imports were hurting the American industry.

Paul F. Mickey, vice president of the American Watch Manufacturers Assn., said the tariff increase gives American producers "a chance to survive" in the face of a flood of Swiss watches that has "literally strangled our industry."

He added the boost still wouldn't equalize costs and predicted Swiss imports "will continue to supply the majority of the American market."

Sen. Purtell (R.-Conn.) said his state's distressed watchmaking plants would benefit and "skills so necessary in war and national defense" would be preserved.

Ellen Dorothea Michel, 21, of the Stuyvesant Hotel, and formerly of 5518 69th street, Maspeth, Queens, was arrested at High Falls yesterday on a charge of second degree grand larceny after allegedly having taken money from funds of Wiltwyck Motors, 112-18 North Front street, to give to another woman.

Arraigned today before Special City Judge Harry Gold, she waived examination and was held for the grand jury. Bail was to be fixed later today.

Detectives Clarence Brophy and Frank Sammons, and Deputy Sheriff Earl Conro arrested the defendant at High Falls. Lt. William Leonard, of the local police said the woman reported in her statement to authorities that she had intended to bring $301 of funds, owned by Wiltwyck Motors, where she had been employed as a bookkeeper, to a bank July 24, but failed to arrive on time.

Atom Talk
Breaks Off
In Senate

Amended Version Is Passed 57-28; Now
Goes to Committee
for Adjustment

Washington, July 28 (AP)—The 13-day Senate talkfest by critics of President Eisenhower's atomic program collapsed quickly last night as weary senators approved an amended version, 57-28, and hurried home for a good night's rest.

Passage of the measure—just a few hours after leaders in the debate made straight-faced statements that the talk might continue until Thanksgiving—ended what Republican leaders had termed a filibuster. Most critics denied this.

A Senate-House conference committee now must adjust basic differences in separate versions of a big bill to open the atomic power field to private industry and to authorize the release of limited nuclear information to U. S. allies.

Senate passage came at 9:47 p. m. (EDT) last night.

The bill was supported by 44 Republicans and 13 Democrats, opposed by two Republicans, 25 Democrats and Independent Sen. Morse of Oregon.

The battle left open scars in the Senate over the bill's power provisions and the tactics used by Republican Leader Knowland of California to break what he termed an opposition filibuster.

Whether these resentments would lead to stiffer opposition to other key administration measures in the drive for adjournment by Aug. 7 remained to be seen.

The Senate adopted amendments to the atomic energy bill, a revision of the 1946 basic act, to authorize the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) and other federal agencies to build atomic power plants, if they can get the funds, and also postpones any exclusive nuclear patents for 10 years.

Grants Patent Rights
The House bill, passed Monday, grants normal patent rights for civilian atomic developments not conceived under government auspices and bars the AEC from the A-power business.

These differences must be hammered out behind closed doors. Opposition senators have threatened another talkfest if their version is jettisoned. The House, under strong leadership control, appeared equally insistent upon its measure.

Senate opponents gave up the fight suddenly last night after two weeks of denouncing the bill as a gigantic giveaway—a view disputed by GOP leaders.

Would Have U. S.
Guns, Planes,
Ships Back
Attack

Washington, July 28 (AP)—South Korean President Syngman Rhee proposed today that an Asian army of more than two million men, backed by U. S. guns, planes and ships, launch a "counterattack" on Communist China.

In a speech prepared for delivery before a joint session of Congress, the fiery Korean leader said:

"Let us remember that peace cannot be restored in the world half Communist and half democratic."

"Your momentous decision is needed now to make Asia safe for freedom, for that will automatically settle the world Communist problem."

Army Worms Are
Active Upstate

Ulster Farmers, However,
Reported Free of Crop Pest

Geneva, July 28 (AP)—As if the dry weather wasn't enough, some farmers in at least three upstate New York counties also had the army worm to worry about today.

The army worm is a furry, crawling thing like a caterpillar. It attacks almost anything green, with particular attention to corn.

Dr. Paul Chapman, head of the entomology department at the State Agricultural Experiment station here, said the dry weather probably helped the growth of the army worm population.

Glenn Nice, Ontario county farm bureau agent, said the mild winter also undoubtedly had something to do with it.

50 Per Cent Ruined
Nice said 50 per cent of the corn crops in three Ontario county townships already had been wrecked by the army worm. He said the loss in the county might total $100,000.

Gypsy Moth Moves West

Lansing, Mich. (AP) — The gypsy moth, a damaging pest heretofore found no further west than Pennsylvania, has been found in Michigan. These infestations were discovered in the Lansing area. Federal and state agencies quickly combined efforts to wipe them out, saying the pests could cause millions of dollars damage to trees, shrubs and other vegetation in a single year if allowed to spread.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

Since the Gus Wunder column, among the interested readers was Thomas J. Wolf, the undertaker, who phoned me and told me he remembered when Mr. Wunder first worked for Burgevin's. It was later that he took the small store next to Nick Murphy's undertaking parlor at 142 Broadway where Mr. Wolf worked at the time. Mr. Wolf said there they had a chance to observe his work and said that he was one of the best designers of floral pieces. He was a real artist at it. Perhaps he handed down his artistic ability to his son George, who later was to become world famous in his own right as the cartoonist of Terry and the Pirates. Mr. Wolf said that whenever he had occasion to drop in at Wunder's home, there was little George drawing pictures and good, too. When later Mr. Wunder, the florist moved away from here to Passaic, N. J., Mr. Wolf lost track of him for a while. The next time he was to meet him was to find him supervising the floral gardens around the Ford exhibition at the 1939 World's Fair in New York, at which time, they had a long talk about old times. The last time he met Mr. Wunder, again by accident, was at the Dixie Bus Terminal in New York. It shows that sometimes it takes a big city to recognize real talent, in this case of both, father and son.

It is exciting to read that perhaps Kingston will again have a swimming beach with a real expanse of sand and lot of water. In my youth I spent so much time at the beach in the summer from the time I was a very little girl when the Weber family had a private bath-house and used to take me down there. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weber, Sr., used to take me down in their horse and buggy over the High road, a scenic ride both ways. At that time, ham was around 40 cents a pound and I always used to provide myself with a substantial ham sandwich on a big roll for the slow cool ride on my way home when I was good and hungry after a swim. Mrs. Weber would look back at me every once in a while to see if I was OK because I was so quiet, working on my sandwich. Those were wonderful years.

Later I used to go down on the summer trolley-cars or on Sunday with my father. As I remember the Altomari family ran the beach. They spent much time cleaning the sharp clamshells out of the piece white sand and also other refuse. Mr. Altomari kept the beach in good order. His bathing houses may not have been elaborate but they were clean and one had privacy and a private booth, curtain and bench, which in later years I did not find in more elaborate beaches. Also at the beach we had a large room and very large mirror to comb our hair. Everything that was necessary was there and in a convenient location, even bathing suit wringers and showers before one entered the bathing house to wash off the sand. Everything was kept in working order, too. Walks in front of the bathing houses and by the showers were of wood with proper drainage. There was a refreshment stand, where the hot dogs were always hot and fresh and other good things to eat. There was also benches to sit on. Mr. Altomari and his family also kept order on the beach and I never saw a fight or any disorderly condition or any accident except perhaps a slight cut from clam shells when walking in the sand. He also seemed to see that ball playing and other youthful games did not interfere when the quiet relaxations of those who desired just to get sun-tanned and rest or picnic.

WOULD-BE SLEUTHS

There seem to be a great many frustrated would-be detectives in this country. Recently a rather spectacular murder occurred in Cleveland, Ohio. The clues were scarce and police were baffled. But not the public. Police and newspaper telephones were flooded with calls from amateur sleuths who received their detective training by reading murder mysteries. Almost every caller had the solution or at least a suggestion as to how the mystery could be solved. Few, if any, of the suggestions had merit.

Police in most cities tell of similar experiences. Not all the callers are cranks. Some of them are sincere people who want to help. Most of the time, however, these efforts hinder rather than help.

Detection and apprehension of criminals is a job for professionals trained in the science of investigation and detection. It is only in the detective stories that the clever amateur knows more than the authorities. When a serious crime occurs people can best serve the interest of justice by minding their own business and letting the job of solving the crime to the people who are paid to do it.

THE SAME SAD STORY

Five American physicians, who had been prisoners of the Communists in Korea, told the recent annual meeting of the American Medical Association what it is like to be "brainwashed."

Prisoners were marched great distances through snowstorms without adequate food, medical attention or warm clothing. Frequently there was only snow and polluted water for the prisoners to drink. Some of these hardships were the result of the inadequacy of the Communist supplies; most of the suffering, however, was deliberately caused to soften up the soldiers, to make them more susceptible to persuasion.

The initial period of "softening-up" was followed by period of forced intensive study during which food, clothing and other facilities improved. But the Reds made it clear that resistance to the study program would mean an end to improvements. The idea was repeated again and again that the United States was an imperialist country and that only communism reflected the aims of the people.

This period was followed by one in which books and pamphlets were distributed freely, but only books and pamphlets which supported the party line. Men were exposed to constant and ruthless pressure.

Word from released prisoners in Indo-China indicates that the story of Red brutality there is little different than the one in Korea. The returning prisoners were in sad condition, many of them emaciated and suffering from neglected wounds. They told of a "death march" from Dien Bien Phu to prison camps.

The real nature of communism can be observed in the treatment accorded to these unfortunate prisoners. The suffering of the men who survived and the unmarked graves of those who died are testimony to the viciousness of these latter day barbarians who seek to enslave mankind.

HATS OFF

A Connecticut congressman recently chided Vice President Richard M. Nixon for appearing bareheaded at official functions. The letter was sent after the congressman received a copy of a letter written by an official of the Hat Research Foundation pointing out that when the Vice President welcomed Prime Minister Churchill and Anthony Eden, newsreel and newspaper pictures showed the British statesmen wearing hats while Mr. Nixon's head was exposed to full view.

It is easy to sympathize with the hatters who feel that the picture of a hatless Vice President might inspire other men to discard their hats. On the other hand it is not difficult to extend equal sympathy to Vice President Nixon who should certainly not forfeit his unalienable rights to decide for himself what he will wear merely because he holds a high elective office.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

WITHOUT RELIGION, NO RESISTANCE

Asia is the homeland of the religious of the human race. While Catholicism ultimately developed in the European lands of the Roman Empire and most Protestant groups grew in the Germanic countries, Switzerland and England, Christianity is an Oriental religion out of Palestine and Syria. Although all human beings, even the most primitive, develop some form of religious experience, the great universal churches which have crossed national borders and have affected millions of people are the specific contributions of Asia to civilization.

Religion has, in every Asiatic country, determined the social characteristics of the people. In China, historically four religions have been important: Taoism, Confucianism, Buddhism and Islam. Taoism and Buddhism have become largely ritualistic in China, with emphasis on supernatural intervention in private lives. Confucianism is a pragmatic, atheistic, materialistic philosophy which has taken on the characteristics of a church and which has, in Western eyes, at least, the formalities of ancestor worship. Islam in China is extensive, reaching from Turkestan to Shantung.

Hinduism, as a religion, is pantheistic, gloriously exultant in its literature but degeneratively ritualistic and superstitious in its non-philosophic expressions among the masses. Its literature is beautiful almost beyond anything that appears in other religious conceptions. Indian Buddhism has taken on several manifestations, some often producing degenerate sex aspects. It would be impossible to catalogue all the varieties of religious expression in India and the adjoining countries, and it is probably unimportant to do so here. What is significant is the enormous role played by great religions in these countries and how they have degenerated from the noblest spiritual movements among the people to ritualistic superstition.

Islam is the religion of Pakistan and Karachi is one of the most important Islamic cultural centers in all the world. Islam reaches into many parts of India. Pakistan is a bulwark against Communism as, thus far, are all Islamic countries. Whereas Nehru, in the current climate of India, finds public opinion antagonistic to stern resistance against Russia, Pakistan is in alliance with the United States and is firmly set against Marxism.

Christianity came to China early in the Nestorian manifestation, probably in the 7th century. The Nestorians were absorbed in the native population and disappeared, leaving only an historic record. The Dominicans came in the 14th century and the Jesuits in the 15th century. Among the greatest of the Jesuit missionaries was Matteo Ricci (1552-1610) who exercised a tremendous influence in the imperial court. At one period, the Chinese Emperor, Kang Hsi (1655-1723) was ready to adopt Christianity as the Court religion and to convert the country, but the Jesuits and Dominicans got snarled in a quarrel over the name of God, whether it was to be translated as Shang Ti or Tien Chu and when the Pope intervened to instruct the Chinese Emperor as to the correct use of Chinese, the Emperor ordered Christian missionaries out of China (in 1706) with a few exceptions.

Christianity also moved in from the South, influencing India as well as China through the missionary efforts of Francis Xavier whose memory is still green. Also British and American Protestants appeared in the early 19th century in South China as missionaries, expanding their influence throughout the country. So potent were the small number of Christians that until the Communists took over, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in China was almost entirely manned by graduates of Christian colleges. Under British rule, both Protestant and Catholic missionaries made considerable progress in India. Gao, a Portuguese colony in India, developed into an important Catholic center. In both countries, American Catholic and Protestant missionaries had grown increasingly numerous and influential until World War II, where, wherever the Chinese Communists take over, Christians are expelled and in some instances martyred.

It is historically interesting to note that only Christianity and Islam possess the inner strength and courage in these countries to generate opposition to Marxism. It is in the nature of the current world struggle that a Communist will fight, from a philosophic standpoint, that is offensive in Marxism, nor will a Hindu. On the other hand, a Christian or a Moslem, in whatever country, obviously cannot accept a philosophic system which rejects the concept of a mystical God who created the Earth and all that is upon it, including man.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

FRACTURES AND DISLOCATIONS

Vacation time is upon us and is also the season for frequent accidents such as fractures and dislocations. It is important to distinguish between a fracture and a dislocation because while a fracture can go untreated for some time, a dislocation should be corrected as soon as possible. A fracture, of course, is the breaking or splitting of a bone whereas a dislocation is when a joint is pulled out or forced out of its proper setting. However, when a fracture is near a joint, it is often hard to distinguish it from a dislocation. It is usually better to leave a doubtful case until the surgeon or doctor arrives.

Symptoms of a fracture are:
1. Motion at a point where there should be none.
2. Deformity: the limb is altered in shape.
3. There is a fixed pain at one point.
4. Loss of voluntary movement due to this pain.

Treatment consists of obtaining a doctor or surgeon if at all possible and to leave the patient alone, except to make him comfortable, until such help arrives. However, if no such help is available, the bone should be drawn into its natural position by placing one hand above and the other below the point of the fracture. Then take a couple of thin splints as long as the broken bone and pad them with absorbent cotton or cloth of any kind. Place the splints on either side of the injured bone and tie them in position with cloths or handkerchiefs.

As for dislocations, before deciding that a bone is "out of joint," compare the injured joint with the joint on the other side. The point to remember is that where there should be a smooth-working joint, there is now no movement whatever. Also, there is always some deformity. The general rule of treatment, if a doctor is not available, is to pull the bones of the joint apart and then draw the bone or bones into position. Retain in position by bandages.

A state of shock is very common with either dislocation or fracture. The most important thing in the treatment of shock is the application of heat in some form to the spine, abdomen and extremities. The patient should be lying down, the head on a level or slightly lower than the trunk. Small amounts of hot coffee may be given by mouth.

himself what he will wear merely because he holds a high elective office.

Hats can be quite a problem to politicians. If they don't wear them they run into trouble. If they do wear them they are liable to be accused of talking through them.

One Might Call It a Situation Fraught With Danger

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA)—A group walked into Housing and Home Finance Administrator Albert M. Cole's office the other day for a conference.

They noted that since they had been there the last time, the place had been redecorated. Chaise longue and drapes, dove gray walls, deep and luxuriously comfortable cordovan leather davenport and chairs, half a dozen neon indirect lighting fixtures going full blast on the ceiling, though it was a bright, sunny day and a couple of new air conditioners going full blast in the windows.

"Looks like you got a Title One Federal Housing Agency loan for home modernization," commented one of the visitors.

"Where's the barbecue pit?" This was a dirty dig at the FHA scandals in granting government insurance on Title One loans for swimming pools, tennis courts, barbecues and other luxuries. But Administrator Cole took the rib right in his stride. "The barbecue pit is up on Capitol Hill," he cracked. "I've been on the spit up there, turning slowly to a deep burn."

Sir Zafrullah Kahn, foreign minister of Pakistan, has been in Washington for several weeks and a guest of honor at many diplomatic functions. At one of these affairs an American toastmaster was apologizing in advance for his inability to pronounce correctly the distinguished statesman's name. "Don't let it worry you," said the foreign minister. "Just call me 'Mr. Pakistan.'"

The real origin of the name for the social organization of 1952 Eisenhower presidential campaign headquarters workers—The Friendly Sons and Daughters of the Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pierce—has at last been smoked out.

The credit, it seems, should properly go to the late Bert Andrews New York Herald-Tribune Washington correspondent for many years.

During the 1948 campaign, Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., then Republican National Committee chairman, was booked for a speech some place in the west. Bert Andrews asked him what he was going to talk about. Mr. Brownell replied that he hadn't prepared his speech yet, but would write it on the plane going out. Andrews suggested somewhat facetiously that he refer to the then current Democratic administration as the worst since Franklin Pierce.

Mr. Brownell used the idea. He got some letters of protest from Vermont, which was President Pierce's native state. Tom Stephens—then a Dewey campaign worker, now President Eisenhower's appointment secretary—heard about it. He thought up the idea for an organization to honor President Pierce's memory.

The group was batted around Republican campaign headquarters in Washington in 1948, but after President Truman defeated Dewey so overwhelmingly, membership evaporated, Stephens revived it during the Eisenhower campaign, and it's now going strong.

Air force jet aircraft experts and guided missile people in the army are becoming increasingly concerned over the toxic effects of jet and rocket exhaust gasses. There have been no deaths nor serious accidents from either source yet.

Army Chemical Corps is running a research project on the problem at Edgewood, Md., chemical training center.

There is no broad danger to the general public, however. For by the time the flight exhaust gasses reach the ground, they are so diffused that they have no ill effects. It's the ground crews handling jets and missiles who must be protected.

While President Eisenhower says that maximum responsibility for road building must be left to the states, and that they must be given the gasoline tax revenues to carry out this job, this wasn't the consensus of witnesses before Ohio Rep. J. Harry McGreggor's Public Roads subcommittee earlier this year.

More than half of those who expressed an opinion on this subject were against turning over gas tax revenues to the states.

In general, the more populous states want this revenue. The less populous states, usually the larger western states with the longest road mileage, want federal aid for highway construction and are willing to let the federal government have most of the tax.

Either way, it's the motorists who will pay the bill.

Is Grand Chancellor

Saratoga Springs, July 28 (AP)—Jacob D. Fuchsberg of New York city is the new grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias Domain of New York. Fuchsberg, elected yesterday at the organization's annual convention, succeeds Leroy Gates of Nyack. Other new officers are Samuel Schnitzer of New York, grand vice chancellor, and Louis Goldberg of Buffalo, grand prelate. The five-day meeting ends Friday.

Questions -- Answers

Q—What is the origin and meaning of the name Gibraltar?
A—The Moors gave it the name. Gebel-at-Tarik (Rock of Tarik), and Gibraltar is a corruption of that name.

Q—Is there a uniformity in academic costumes worn in United States colleges and universities?
A—Yes. Most colleges follow the code of the Intercollegiate Commission.

Q—To what extent has the death rate from tuberculosis dropped?
A—It has dropped from 183.9 per 100,000 population in 1900, to 12.6 in 1953.

Red China Acts as Kaiser Did in Famous 1917 Declaration on Shipping

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, July 28 — The Red China government has declared war on all airplanes of every nationality on the high seas which travel over waters even beyond the usual territorial limits of three miles from the shore line.

This is comparable to the famous declaration by the Kaiser's government in 1917, which threatened to destroy any shipping it pleased on the high seas—a pronouncement that led to American participation in World War I in defense of the rights of American citizens to travel in international waters on the passenger ships of any nation, neutral or belligerent.

News of the momentous step taken by the Red China government in defiance of international law was revealed for the first time in a speech by Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, to the House of Commons in London.

Mr. Eden said that on July 23, after the unarmed British airliner was shot down—admittedly by fighter planes from Red China—30 miles from Hainan Island in southeast Asia, the British authorities in Hong Kong notified by radio the Communist airfield at Canton, China, giving details of the number and type of rescue planes that would be engaged in rescue work and in searching the area for survivors.

But an hour later, Mr. Eden now discloses, the Red Chinese replied that, while a British flying boat would be allowed to remain in the area, any other war planes which entered the area would be fired upon without further warning.

Three days later—July 26—American planes which were protecting rescue vessels and planes were attacked thirteen miles from Hainan, which location is well outside territorial waters. The American planes fired back and shot down two Communist planes.

This means that the Red China government deliberately ordered the attack and hence that there was nothing accidental about the encounter with the American planes which were engaged in a mission of mercy.

There is no information as to whether the American naval authorities in southeast Asia received word from the British in Hong Kong concerning the threat to fire on all planes except the one they specified would be immune.

Even if such word had been received, it is doubtful whether the United States government could accept as lawful the assumption by the Red China government of authority to say what ships or planes could or could not travel the waters on the air, respectively, beyond territorial limits. The fact is the American ships were there on an errand of rescue and that the Red Chinese fliers had already killed three American citizens, including two small children, who were traveling on the British passenger airplane.

The United States historically has never yielded its view that the seas are free. The British government for many decades has firmly upheld what is known as "the freedom of the seas." Indeed, the right of armed as well as unarmed ships to approach and land on the shores of countries with which no state of war has been declared is inherent in the relations of governments in time of peace. The fact that a government is not recognized for diplomatic purposes does not mean it has a right to regard a government which denies recognition as in the same status as one that is at war.

By all the rules of international law, the Red China government has committed an act of war against the United States because the firing on American military planes was deliberate and was the result of an effort to extend authority beyond the territorial limits.

In days gone by governments which have been subjected to such an unfriendly act would not necessarily declare war but might land marines or troops in some port as a reprisal until such time as full satisfaction was granted by the offending government.

There have been some other incidents close to Siberian territorial waters when American unarmed planes engaged in weather observations have been fired upon but, presumably because no vigorous action was taken in reprisal then, the Communists in Asia evidently believe that none will ever be forthcoming.

So far as Congress is concerned, the unanimity of opinion as revealed in patriotic expressions by leaders of both parties indicates that American officials feel that public opinion will be with them if it becomes necessary to assert American rights in southeast Asia.

The Peiping radio is filling the air waves with charges about American "aggression" in a desperate effort to confuse the issue in the court of world opinion. But the Communists added the first attack, and the fact that they gave orders to fire on any search planes three days later is officially revealed. So evidence of the guilt of the Peiping government is conclusive.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, July 26—In view of the publication of a picture of Charlie Chaplin grinning broadly beside Chou En-lai, the premier of the Soviet puppet state in China, the angry radio remarks of Mary Pickford in defense of Chaplin acquire a deeper interest. They may be no more important than they were before because, after all, this somewhat withdrawn pantomimist of a bygone age never has been regarded as a sage even in her own line of work. However, the fact that Chaplin now has put himself on view with the head of the force which slaughtered and tortured American soldiers and refused to account for many does have importance of its own.

The cut-line on one picture from Geneva said it was taken at a party at the puppet's villa. A dispatch in the Community Daily Worker said Chaplin and his wife dined with Chou En-lai and added that Chaplin recently received a "peace prize" from the World Peace Council. Dispatches published at the time of this award said it was "Communist-sponsored." The dinner, and a speech by Chaplin, quoted in the Worker, also arouse interest in the reason why a broadcast in which Mary Pickford and Jimmy (McCrory) put Mary Pickford on the air for an abusive attack on one of the most persistent anti-Communists in the prolonged campaign against the treason. This refers to me.

Mary may be less naive and more crafty than her old fans ever thought. Whatever the case, it all seems to call for explanation because under strong prompting by Tex and Jinx, Mary has moved to say: "I am no Communist but I don't think that anybody, including Chaplin, should be condemned without his day in court."

Skipping a measure of text in a transcript from Radio Reports, Inc., we come now to a jumbled passage in which Mary says: "If I were in Moscow I'd be afraid."

I wouldn't be allowed to express my feelings, and I want to keep it free for my grandchildren, for my great-grandchildren and on to the generations unknown because they fought for you and me to give us this privilege of speaking on the air our feelings, our convictions and I'm convinced that it isn't because—and I'm going to reiterate that—that Charlie Chaplin I've known for years.

I've told you before he told me he was not a Communist. . . . But I'm going to fight for the right—for his right, your right and my right to stand up for what we believe in as long as I live. . . . I'm going to risk the wrath of people that are so poisonous that if you will disagree with them they would have you thrown in jail. And that is the hole in the dike that I spoke about. It is the crumbling of the ramparts we watch."

Miss Pickford's "memoirs" were then running in McCall's, which took over Eleanor Roosevelt after she left the Ladies Home Journal and which has taken a turbulent part in the rising storm over public education, on the "liberal" side. This new phase of Mary Pickford, expressed in the violent defense of Chaplin, her second such broadcast in about seven months on the same show, was in shocking contrast to her previous expressions. For example, she wrote me just after Roosevelt's third-term victory in 1944 that this "defeat" had depressed her to the lowest depth. She was "just about ready to give up the struggle for decent government" but she took fresh courage when she read the Los Angeles Examiner and found me "still there and battling away."

"Keep up the good work," she said, adding as a P.S., "I do believe I have written my first fan letter."

Mary, Douglas Fairbanks and Chaplin were the founding stars of the movie company called United Artists. She retains a financial interest. But, meanwhile, New York orcs have moved in and have been having difficulties marketing some films from Europe. That is a development which I will deal with separately. Mary Pickford's interesting change of attitude and her adoption for the first time in her career of a truculent and unbecoming attitude may not be unconnected with such business developments.

I say "truculent and unbecoming" because, under prompting by Tex and Jinx, she made a personal attack on me and taunted

Flint Triplets Suffer Eye Disease

Flint, Mich., July 28 (AP)—An incurable eye disease has left two eight-month-old triplet girls blind and the third sightless in one eye.

The children are Anita Sue, Janet Kay and Debora Lynn Price, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Price of Flint.

The triplets each weighed less than three pounds at birth—last Nov. 25.

Their mother only recently noticed Debora and Janet were blind. Mrs. Price told doctors the girls didn't reach for things like other children do.

Specialists at University Hospital in Ann Arbor said the triplets were suffering from retrolental fibroplasia. They said the disease attacks underweight children particularly. Janet and Debora were totally blind. Anita Sue still has the use of one eye.

Greek and Roman children had dolls, hoops, skipping ropes, hobby horses and kites.

Lawton Takes Tests to Decide Upon Retirement

Washington, July 28 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Kirke B. Lawton, who figured in the McCarthy-Army row, is undergoing physical tests here to determine whether he should serve to retirement age next November or be retired now.

Lawton met with a physical evaluation board at the army's Walter Reed Medical Center yesterday. His series of checkups will be completed tomorrow, an army spokesman said in answer to inquiries. The board will then make its recommendation to the army.

Part of the 36-day hearings by the Senate Investigations Subcommittee into charges and counter-charges by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and top army officials included disagreement over Lawton, who commands Ft. Monmouth, N. J. Charges that Washington headquarters of the army concealed cases of subversion at the signal corps laboratories, Ft. Monmouth, were leveled by McCarthy at Secretary of the Army Stevens.

Stevens testified that at one time he had considered removing Lawton as commander of Ft. Monmouth, but said that was because of certain speeches and public statements by the general and not, as McCarthy intimated, because the general had cooperated with the senator. The senator once said Lawton had been "told he was sick" and brought to Washington.

Lawton was in Walter Reed Hospital for study and treatment of an ailment he had been suffering while the McCarthy committee investigation was under way and the general attended some of the sessions. He now is on convalescent leave from his Ft. Monmouth assignment.

IBM Reports 6-Month Income

New York, July 27—For the six months ended June 30, 1954, International Business Machines Corporation today reported net income of $21,600,314 after estimated U. S. federal income taxes. This is equivalent for the six months period to $3.27 a share on the 4,098,471 shares outstanding at the end of the period, and compares with net income after taxes, for the corporation and subsidiary companies, for the corresponding 1953 period of $15,575,997, equivalent to $3.80 a share on the same capitalization. As the result of a 2½ per cent stock dividend paid Jan. 28, 1954, and a stock split-up of 25 per cent on May 7, 1954, the number of outstanding shares was increased from 3,198,868 shares to 4,098,471 shares. Earnings for the 6 months ended June 30, 1954 were not subject to the excess profits tax, which for the same period in 1953 aggregated $3,598,600.

Net income of the corporation for the six months ended June 30, 1954, before U. S. federal income taxes, amounted to $46,004,414 compared with $40,815,097 for the corporation and subsidiary companies in the corresponding 1953 period.

Effective January 1, 1954, the corporation revised its method of taking up earnings in countries outside the United States to include only the distributed income (cash dividends) from its wholly-owned subsidiary, IBM World Trade Corporation, the report stated.

Happy Landing

New Haven, Conn. (AP)—Candace Cronan, 20 months old, tumbled 30 feet out of a second story window. She was picked up unhurt on a patch of soft ground which had been dug up for a flower bed.

From the Rev. Carlton Forshee, Ph.D., a former pastor of the Port Ewen Methodist Church, that he and his family, consisting of his wife, two sons and a daughter, Jerry, John and Jeanne, are now living in Minneapolis, Minn. The Rev. Mr. Forshee is one of the four pastors of the Hennepin Avenue Methodist Church of Minneapolis. The church has a membership of 5,000 and has besides the four pastors two ministers of music, a director of religious education, a director of religious drama and a parish visitor. The Rev. Mr. Forshee and his family were seven years in Jeffersonville, Ind., where he was pastor of a large Methodist Church.

Speeding Arrests Lessen

Speeding in the city, as reflected in recent arrests, appears to be lessened as the result of recently intensified police action, and only three arrests were made yesterday. Officer Ernest Bartoff picked up two drivers on East Chester street and Officers Benjamin Osterhoudt and John Houghtaling arrested another on Hurley avenue. All forfeited $15 bail through failure to appear before Special City Judge Harry Gold this morning.

Democrats Give Murray Approval

Democratic chairmen from the four counties in the 34th state senatorial district met Monday evening at The Kirkland Hotel in Kingston and gave official designation to Floyd G. Murray of Grand Gorge as their choice for state senator on the Democratic ticket.

Previously the county conventions of the district had met and Ulster and Delaware counties had given their unofficial endorsement. Mr. Murray will oppose Senator Arthur H. Wicks at the fall election.

Attending the conference at the Kirkland Monday evening were Thomas J. Plunkett of Ulster county, Paul Williams of Delaware county, James O'Connell, Jr., of Greene county and Harry Borden of Sullivan county.

Marines Are Held In $20,000 Bond

New Bern, S. C., July 28 (AP)—Five Marines have been ordered continued in bond of $20,000 each for trial in Superior Court on charges of kidnaping and robbing a taxi driver. Conviction could carry life imprisonment.

No trial date was set. Cab driver Herbert Cox, 39, of Cherry Point testified at a preliminary hearing yesterday that the five overpowered him in his cab last Sunday and took a $5 bill and change from him after threatening to kill him. He said that Pfc. Kenneth J. Young, 20, of Elmhurst, N. Y., wrapped the cord from the cab's radio transmitter around his neck and threatened to kill him if he made an outcry.

Young and the other defendants are stationed at the nearby Cherry Point Marine Air Base. The others are Pfc. Edward E. Ballou, 19, Fort Cobb, Okla.; Pfc. George E. Swannick, 20, Buffalo, N. Y.; Cpl. Samuel J. Eaton, 19, Uncasville, Conn.; and Pvt. Wendell F. Kekuola, 19, Leo Oah, Hawaii.

Dutchess County Democrat for FDR

Poughkeepsie, July 28 (AP)—Dutchess County Democratic Chairman Alexander Hamilton says he expects this Hudson river valley county to vote for Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. for the gubernatorial nomination on the first ballot at the Democratic state convention.

Hamilton, who previously had announced his support for Roosevelt, said last night he expected the county's eight convention delegates to "follow my lead as county chairman" on the first ballot and vote for the Manhattan congressman.

Hamilton made his statement following a closed meeting of the county committee last night to act on state and local office designations.

The Dutchess delegates to the convention in New York city in September are not "pledged" in the usual meaning of the word, Hamilton said. He said the delegation would caucus on whom it would support after the first ballot—if more than one is needed to nominate.

The Roosevelt family's ancestral home at Hyde Park is in Dutchess county. The congressman also has a summer home at Pawling—also in Dutchess county—not far from Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's farm.

The 1950 census showed that only 1½ per cent of Rhode Island's labor force was primarily engaged in farming.

The Wall and Whimper
of the City

Once upon a time—to be exact, two and a half years ago—a cherry-cheeked lass named Ann came to the Isle of Manhattan in quest of fame and fortune. Her ambition was to be an artist, but she soon discovered that even an artist must eat, and so she went to work as receptionist in a dentist's office.

One Sunday afternoon, our culture-minded heroine went to the Museum of Modern Art on 53rd street. As she stood on the first floor gallery, trying to decide whether a still-life by Braque was a still-live or a mistake, a young man with longish hair came up to her and asked if she had a match.

"You can't smoke here," said Ann.

"Yes, I can," said the young man, pointing to a brass urn filled with white sand near the elevator.

Ann handed him a match. "This painting has me puzzled," she said. "I can't quite figure out who Braque is driving at."

"There's nothing obscure about it," said the young man. "It's an impression of a harlequin with guitar."

Ann snapped that she knew a harlequin when she saw one. And that was the start of their first fight.

Half an hour later, they were dining in one of those Greenwich Village restaurants with candles on the table and pork in the chicken soup. Over a glass of chianti, the young man let drop that he was a poet, and when Ann asked him to recite some of his verses, he obliged with a double-quaternion about night music and a field strewn with lonely corpses.

Ann said the words were beautiful. However, she wasn't sure she understood why the corpses were lonely. That was the start of their second fight.

Around midnight, after seeing a W. C. Fields re-run which the poet liked and Ann didn't, the pair strolled over to Sheridan Square. As might be expected, the young man wanted to kiss Ann, and when she said she wouldn't think of it on such short acquaintance, he accused her of being a Philistine. One word led to a thousand others, and the argument ended with Miss Cherry Cheeks dashing down the IRT steps while the poet shouted maledictions at a lamppost, a mailbox and a fire-plug, in that order.

Next day they both felt miserable and lonely. And the next day, ditto. But there was nothing they could do about it. They had been so busy bickering that they had forgotten to exchange last names, addresses or phone numbers.

The day after that—but that's as much as I know about the story. In fact, it's a darn sight more than I know about it. To fess up, I don't know whether any part of it ever happened. I do know, however, that there are 21 words chalked in black crayon on the side wall of the Corn Exchange Bank on Sheridan Square, and that when I went down to check them last night, a cop told me they had been there for two and a half years.

Here are the 21 words: "Ann, Ann, I miss you terribly. I will wait and wait and wait. I hope you see this. (Signed) The Bad Poet." (Copyright, 1954, by Billy Rose) (Distributed by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Family Degrees

Des Moines (AP) — Mrs. Tillie C. Davis of Des Moines is getting used to receiving college certificates and degrees from members of the Harmon family. When she received a piano teacher's certificate and academy diploma in 1918 from Cotner College at Lincoln, Neb., it was the late A. D. Harmon who presented them to her. Two years later he also handed her a two-year teacher certificate at the same institution. In 1948 she received a Bachelor of Science in Education degree at Drake University, and was awarded her diploma by Dr. Henry G. Harmon, son of A. D. Harmon. And in 1954 Dr. Harmon handed her the master's degree at Drake University.

Excelsiors' Circus Slated Saturday

Saturday is the big day for Excelsior Hose which is bringing Hagen Brothers Circus to Dietz Stadium for a matinee at 2:15 p. m. and an evening performance at 8 o'clock.

President Henry Trice of the volunteer fire company and its circus chairman, told a reporter today. "We are proud to present Hagen Brothers, which we consider one of the finest attractions on the road."

Trice said the show has a sparkling array of trained horses that perform precision drills, and feats requiring each individual animal to exhibit memory and mental capacity that reveal "human intelligence." He emphasized, "It's equine beauty with brains." Among other features are the Navarro Duo, the Hanel troupe; aerial ballet; ballerinas of the air; the Reynoses; Battle of the century and many other acts, starring pretty girls and the usual collection of funny clowns. Those who have not procured tickets from members of Excelsiors may buy them at the circus lot before the shows.

Summer drinks should be like a politician's speech
... long and smooth!

My hat's off to the fellows who are running in this hot weather. Me, I'd rather stroll. Find a nice, cool spot and sit a spell with a tall drink.

Lots of tinkling ice in a long, frosty glass. A little lemon and sugar. Fizzy water. And Schenley to make it smooth and satisfying.

The reason for specifying Schenley is right here in this hourglass. The glass itself represents Nature's unhurried goodness. The big "S" stands for Schenley's skill. Together, they make Schenley the best-tasting whiskey in ages.

Committee Begins Study of Reports On Red Campsites

Westhampton Beach, July 28 (P)—Investigation of reports of Communist influence in a number of summer camps in New York state has been started formally by a joint legislative committee.

A special counsel is to be appointed today by the joint legislative committee on charitable and philanthropic organizations. This will leave the committee's regular counsel, Charles T. Corey, free to continue his questioning of witnesses about charity rackets and other aspects of philanthropic fund-raising.

The committee, headed by State Sen. Bernard Tompkins, Queens Republican, held its first session on summer camp subversion yesterday, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey recently asked the committee to probe the matter following receipt of complaints that a number of the 600-odd summer camps in the state were Red-tainted.

Hearings Planned

Public hearings are planned, but no dates were set yesterday. The committee plans to retain a special investigative staff.

Tompkins said in a statement after yesterday's meeting of the seven-member committee that "the problem of Communist operation or penetration of summer camps was thoroughly discussed."

"All members of the committee including representatives of the legislative leaders were present and were filled in on the background and progress of the committee to date," Tompkins said.

"The committee members of both political parties were united and in complete agreement that if there is any subversive indoctrination of American boys and girls during their formative years it should and must be ended as soon as possible."

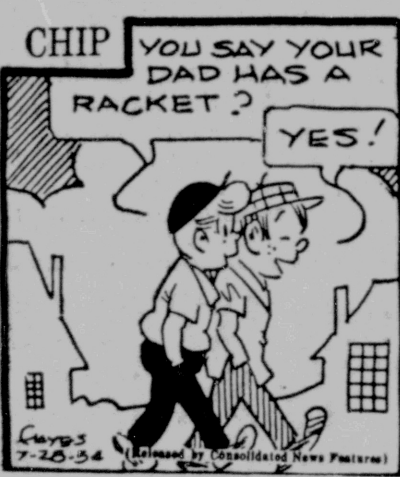

"We agreed that if that is so, it is our duty to propose remedial legislation."

Non-Partisan Basis

"It was further agreed that any committee inquiry into such subversive influences in summer camps and solicitation of funds from the public to support such camps should be conducted on a completely non-partisan basis and with the full protection to the rights of all persons concerned with the inquiry."

The committee's closed session yesterday was held at the Dune Deck, an oceanfront hotel here on eastern Long Island. Tompkins said the committee met here instead of at its Manhattan offices because of the "confidential nature" of the discussion.

The committee's exposures of charity rackets at public hearing last winter led to regulatory legislation.

Report Urges Use Of Forest System

New York, July 28 (P)—A report on the 30-year history of the New York State Park System urges greater use of the state's 2½-million-acre forest preserve for camping and recreation.

The report—issued in a 43-page illustrated booklet yesterday—declares:

"The locking up of this preserve, on a basis imposed by extreme fanatical conservationist minorities, is the most conspicuous void in the New York Park System."

The report continued that because of heavy use and overcrowding in most state parks, camping has necessarily become more and more curtailed or restricted.

The only logical areas for additional camping facilities are in the huge forest preserve areas, the report said.

The brochure—containing colorful scenes of the state's parks—was put out by the State Conservation Department, the Division of Parks and the State Council of Parks.

Explained in Booklet

Development of the parks in the past 30 years and future plans for each region are explained in the booklet.

A foreword by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the booklet said of New York state's parks: "There is nothing to compare with them in the country or anywhere else in the world." Dewey said the parks, in addition to being of great recreational value to the people of the state, also are a substantial financial asset because they attract many visitors to the state each year.

Robert Moses, head of the state park system since its inception in 1924, took note of the anniversary yesterday to explain his work in a statement accompanying the booklet.

Holds Both Jobs

When the State Council of Parks was organized by the late Gov. Alfred E. Smith in 1924, Moses was made chairman of the council as well as president of the newly created Long Island State Park Commission. He still holds both jobs in addition to several other posts, including that of New York city park commissioner.

Moses' statement called New York state's parks "the most highly developed and used state park system in this country."

The report, in urging greater recreational use of the forest preserve, noted the stand of the State Council of Parks. The council for years has advocated some relaxation of the constitutional limitations and interpretations "which have arbitrarily prevented all but the most restricted recreational use of this huge area."

The forest preserve is made up of 2½ million acres of publicly owned property mostly in the Adirondack and Catskill mountains.

Rockefeller Has Visit With Son

Reno, July 28 (P)—Five-year-old Winthrop Rockefeller Jr. will get acquainted with his millionaire father while his mother, Bobo, waits for her Nevada divorce.

Winnie—whose father hadn't seen him since 1950—swam and played with the 42-year-old oil tycoon yesterday. Bobo termed it the first of "a period of introductory visits."

Rockefeller flew secretly to Reno Monday for the first time since agreeing to a 5½ million dollar divorce settlement with his wife last month. Bobo, a coal miner's daughter, reached the million dollar bracket with the aid of two society marriages. She was not with young Winthrop when he met his father yesterday.

Under the agreement Bobo gets complete custody of the boy but Rockefeller, she said, will have at least eight visits with him while she sits out the required six weeks Nevada residence.

After the divorce Rockefeller will have visiting rights.

Rescue Hook Meeting

A special meeting of Rescue Hook and Ladder Co. will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the rooms on Abel street. Business of importance to the members will be discussed and all are requested to be present.

Radio Station Sold

Rochester, July 28 (AP)—The sale of radio station WRNY for a sum in "excess of $70,000 was announced last night by Stanley Bachman, president of Bachman Enterprises. Bachman said final transfer of ownership of the 250-watt station would be subject to customary Federal Communications Commission approval. He said the new owners include David A. Kyle of Monticello, president of Station WABY, Albany, 14 per cent and Mrs. Harriett Kyle of Monticello, 14 per cent.

Probe Is Ordered

New York, July 28 (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner has ordered an investigation of "procedures and practices" relating to the city's fire hydrant inspectors who last year pocketed fees totaling $32,418 from contractors. The inspectors are paid $5 a day by contractors using hydrants for water. Some of the 19 inspectors last year made more than $8,000 a year on this basis. They are supposed to inspect the hydrants to make sure that contractors do not damage them or let dirt get into the water system.

Proskauer Heads Joint Committee

Albany, July 28 (AP)—Joseph M. Proskauer of New York City has been appointed by Gov. Dewey as chairman of a Joint Legislative Committee for the American Jewish Tercenary. The governor yesterday named 18 other persons to serve on the committee, including Sen. Irving M. Ives, Norwich Republican, and Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, New York city Democrat, whom he designated vice chairman.

Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck appointed three assemblymen to the body, and Walter J. Mahoney, Senate majority leader, will name three from his House. Heck and Mahoney were among those named by Dewey.

The 25-member committee was established by the 1954 Legislature to work with the American Jewish Tercenary Committee in observing the 300th anniversary of the arrival of the first Jewish settlers in America. The first group arrived at the colony of New Amsterdam in 1654.

Celebrations Scheduled

Celebrations are scheduled from September through May. The State Committee has a $5,000 appropriation for its work.

Heck appointed Samuel Rabin, Queens Republican; Hymen Mintz, Sullivan county Republican, and Bernard Austin, Brooklyn Democrat.

Appointed by Dewey, besides those already mentioned, were: Elmer A. Carter of New York city, a member of the State Crime Commission; Edward Corsi, state industrial commissioner; James A. Farley, former postmaster general; Atty. Gen. Nathaniel L. Goldstein; Maj. Gen. Karl F. Hausauer of Buffalo, commander of the New York National Guard; William B. Herlands, state commissioner of investigation; Rep. Jacob K. Javits, New York city Republican; Dr. Grayson L. Kirk, president of Columbia University; State Comptroller J. Raymond McGovern; Thomas A. Murray, president of the State Federation of labor; George M. Shapiro, the governor's counsel; Mrs. Caroline K. Simon of New York city, a member of the Commission Against Discrimination, and Roger W. Straus of New York city, a member of the Board of Regents.

Veteran Wins Fight

New York, July 28 (AP)—A Brooklyn veteran, dishonorably discharged from the army because he went AWOL after fighting stopped in Europe, has won his battle to keep from being deported. Joseph A. Tarantino, 39, now a plumber's helper, had fought as a private in North Africa, Italy and France, winning four battle stars. He told a Federal Court he went AWOL 19 days after V-E Day to get home to see his seriously ill mother. On the advice of a priest, Tarantino later surrendered to the army, was court-martialed and sentenced to a year at hard labor, a term which he served with time off for good behavior.

Flatbush Movies

Outdoor movies will be shown at the Flatbush Reformed Church Thursday at 8:30 p. m. on the lawn, featuring "That Daring Young Man," starring Joe E. Brown, which was originally scheduled last week. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Witnesses Hold Toronto Session

"What is wrong with mankind today is their disobedience to the Bible's two great commandments to love," eight persons from Kingston were told in Toronto July 25. They were among 22,201 Jehovah's witnesses from the United States and Canada who heard N. H. Knorr of Brooklyn, president of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, speak on "God's Love to the Rescue in Man's Crisis."

Ernest Kidd, presiding minister of the Kingston congregation, said that the local group will feature convention instruction for the Witnesses in their home to house activity and home Bible study work, as well as congregation organization and family life. The instruction is to be applied within each congregation.

The Toronto assembly was the main one of 21 district conventions planned in the United States and Canada during June, July and August. Tentative arrangements are being made for 15 from Kingston to attend a series of international conventions scheduled for Europe in 1955.

May Abandon Island

Washington, July 28 (AP)—Ellis Island, New York city's gateway to immigrants since 1892, may be abandoned in favor of a shore location in New Jersey. Immigration Commissioner Joseph M. Swing recently looked over government properties at Edgewater, N. J., as a possible site for a new immigration center, the Justice Department said yesterday. The department said facilities at Ellis Island, in New York harbor, may be moved to Edgewater, across the Hudson river from Manhattan. But no final decision has been reached.

Electrical Devices Used

Albany, N. Y., July 28 (AP)—The communities of Freeport, Malverne, Lynbrook, Floral Park and Lake Success in Nassau county, use electrical timing devices to check speeds of motor vehicles. The Associated Press reported erroneously Monday that radar devices were in use.

Woman Is Held For Procuring

New York, July 28 (AP)—A woman who police said kept a "staff" of 60 call girls was arrested in her plush East Side apartment last night on charges of procuring for the purpose of prostitution.

Police, who identified her as Mrs. Irene Donaldson, 41, said her arrest came after detectives spent seven days listening in on her telephone calls under a wiretap permit given by the state Supreme Court.

Mrs. Donaldson, who was picked up in her five-room apartment at 17 E. 67th St., was described by police as a "very active East Side procurer." They said she took as her share 50 per cent of the fees the girls collected.

These charges, police added, varied according to the man's ability to pay.

Two Are Arrested

Two women, identified by police as members of Mrs. Donaldson's staff, were arrested in a suite at the Gotham Hotel at about the same time Mrs. Donaldson was picked up. Police gave their names as Jane Diaz, 21, and Mrs. Joan Trevor, 24, both of Manhattan, and charged them with loitering for the purpose of prostitution.

Police said each of the women was to have received a $30 fee from two businessmen, whose names were not revealed.

When taken into custody, Mrs. Donaldson told police she was a designer by occupation.

Committee Is Appointed

Local oil merchants yesterday appointed a committee to consult with the city's newly appointed building inspector on regulations pertaining to installation of fuel-burning units. The group met with Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy and S. Burrell Schwarz, welder, superintendent of buildings at Manor Lake yesterday morning to discuss building code regulations dealing with installations of oil burning units in local buildings. The committee will confer from time to time with the inspector.

Test Case Mapped Upon Regulations

New York, July 28 (AP)—A test case fight was mapped yesterday against army regulations in the case of an army private discharged as "undesirable" after serving out his draft term.

An honorable discharge will be sought for the former serviceman John Henry Harmon III, 23, of 601 East 226 st., the Bronx.

At the same time, an attack will be made on army regulations which permit undesirable category discharges, based on "derogatory information," which may be ordered without any hearing for the man involved. Pre-service associations were cited in Harmon's case.

Harmon's attorney, David Shapiro, said he believed it unfair for the army to take a man into service—an act in which the individual has no choice—and then "ruin his life" by discharging him as undesirable after his period of service, no matter what his background.

The lawyer said Harmon's case would be taken to an Army Discharge Review Board. If the appeal through army procedure fails, it will be taken through the courts.

The army regulations will be attacked as arbitrary, discriminatory and in violation of constitutional provisions.

Harmon entered service Oct. 31, 1952, and was separated last June 2 at Camp Pickett, Va., with the "undesirable" discharge.

Judge Studies Bid

Buffalo, July 8 (AP)—A federal judge had under study today a stockholder's charge that Remington Rand Inc. was denying stockholders a chance to make "a free and intelligent choice" of directors. The charge came during the company's annual meeting yesterday from William E. Shorten of Rye, a former Remington Rand vice president. Shorten said in an affidavit that the company violated its by-laws by denying him access to the stock record during a 30-day period preceding the annual meeting. The action, he said, tended to "perpetuate the existing board in office."

Aid for Religious Course Sought

The Protestant Churches within the area covered by the Ontario Central School District are arranging to organize religious instruction in the Central School under the conditions laid down by what is known as released time religious instruction. The plan being carried out for the next school year will include pupils in Grades 1, 2 and 3. The ministers in the area and lay representatives from the churches met in Mt. Tremper July 22 and drew up a budget to cover expenses as follows:

Fuel, $300; insurance, $60; electricity, $60; curriculum materials, $100; instruction, $300; repairs, $100; total, $920.

Those wishing to contribute toward this budget may send their names to the Rev. John Grob, Ashokan, who is chairman of the finance committee of the Ontario Council of Religious Education. Chairmen of other permanent committees appointed were curriculum, the Rev. Percy Halsted for building the Rev. George Davies and for publicity, the Rev. Leo Ininga. This religious instruction is to be given at the old Boiceville School building, which was purchased by the Methodist Conference and has been offered for this purpose to the council. The expense of reconditioning the property has also been paid by the Methodist Conference with some assistance from volunteer work parties. Friday,

Sept. 10 at 8 p. m. the ministers and lay representatives from the various Protestant churches in the area will meet again at the Boiceville School for future planning.

Ballots Cut Lead
Of Old ILA Group

New York, July 28 (AP)—Counting of a batch of challenged ballots in New York's waterfront labor contest has reduced the lead held by the old International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA) from 319 to 260 votes.

The additional ballots were tallied yesterday after the National Labor Relations Board ruled they should be counted. The batch of 654 votes had been challenged for a variety of reasons.

The results prompted David Jaffe, counsel for the new AFL International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA) to say, "we still have a good chance of winning."

Patrick J. Connolly, executive vice president of the old ILA, countered that his union was "still winning and we're going to win."

There are still 1,097 disputed ballots to be disposed of before final results of the election, held last December, will be known. The count so far gives the old ILA a total of 9,407 while the AFL has 9,147.

The two unions are rivals for the right to represent the port of New York's 23,000 longshoremen. Until one of them is certified as winner of the election by the NLRB, neither may sign a labor contract with the shipping industry.

Of ballots counted yesterday, the AFL got 353 and the old ILA 297.

Among the ballots still disputed and uncounted are 630 cast by hatch bosses. The AFL-ILA claims these men are supervisors and not eligible to vote, while the ILA says they are eligible.

Fairless Predicts
Steel Operation

New York, July 28 (AP)—Benjamin F. Fairless, board chairman of United States Steel Corp., believes his own company and the steel industry will operate at between 70 and 75 per cent of capacity for the rest of the year.

The outlook for the nation's economy, is "good, for peace-time," says Fairless.

So far as immediate prospects for U. S. Steel are concerned, Fairless says:

"I look for a pickup, so far as operations are concerned, in late August and early September."

More Than 4 Millions

His company's greatest steel producer in the world, reported yesterday that its second quarter net income was more than four million dollars higher than net income for the first quarter.

The second quarter figures were $49,020,738 or $1.63 a share compared with the first quarter's $44,830,376 or $1.48 a share.

In booming 1953 the second quarter was $55,640,806 or $1.89 a share.

The first six months of 1954 showed big steel with a net income of $93,851,114, or $3.11 a share compared with $105,016,764 or $3.54 a share for the first half of '53.

U. S. Steel declared its usual quarterly dividend of 75 cents a share on common stock payable Sept. 10 to holders of record Aug. 6.

The regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 on preferred is payable Aug. 20 to holders of record Aug. 3.

As Pegler Sees It

me to call her a "Communist," which, of course I had no thought of doing if only because I doubt her intellectual qualifications for such esoterics. On request I would explain to her what esoteric means, although simpler words might be more appropriate first.

The Tex and Jinx show has been hostile to some persons who attack communism. They were ballyhooing the Pickford series for McCall's in this instance. Latterly they have been doing a sort of disc-jockey act for the Waldorf-Astoria whose clientele certainly includes many citizens as heartily anti-Red as Joe McCarthy.

They and Mary might want to attack the New York Times now for attacking Charlie Chaplin. For the Times said when he accepted the "peace prize": "Now he has allowed himself to be used by a sinister conspiracy. * * * he shuffles off toward Moscow * * *"

Tobacco Research
Outlines Program
To Award Funds

New York, July 28 (AP)—The Tobacco Industry Research committee has outlined a three-fold program on the basis of which it will award funds for scientific study of tobacco and its effects on smokers.

Dr. Clarence Cook Little, scientific director of the committee, said yesterday that research will be conducted in these three areas:

"1. Study of the physical and chemical composition of tobacco and accompanying products.

"2. Study of tissue changes in humans and in animals under various conditions.

"3. Study of smoking and other tobacco habits and of the emotional and physical makeup of smokers."

Little said the committee's advisory board is reviewing applications for specific research projects. The committee was set up this year with an initial fund of $500,000 provided by cigarette manufacturers, tobacco growers and warehouse associations.

Committee Announced

Formation of the committee was announced following reports that cancer was linked to cigarette smoking. Validity of these reports has been questioned by tobacco industry spokesmen and others.

Little declared that to date research has not found any single cause of cancer. He advised, however, against expecting "too many results too soon" from the tobacco committee's investigation of the question.

Discussing the research program, Little said:

"While much excellent work has been done on the contents of tobacco itself, we want to look into this important subject by sponsoring original research to supplement or extend studies already conducted or under way."

"Approaching the problem from another direction, we want to learn what changes, if any, take place in the different animal and human tissues when subjected under varying conditions to tobacco derivatives, smoke itself, as well as other potential irritants, such as air pollutants."

"We also want to know more about tobacco habits and why people smoke—which leads us to the metabolism and the glandular and nervous systems of smokers."

SHOWER FOR SISTER

A girl writes: "My sister is going to be married soon and two of her friends would like to give her a shower. However, both these girls live in small apartments and cannot accommodate the number of guests they would like to invite. Would it be proper for me to offer to let them have the shower here, or might this in any way suggest that I had a hand in giving the party, which I certainly don't want anyone to think."

So long as the invitations are sent out in their names, it's definitely their party and there is no objection to their giving it at your house.

Not Strapless Dress for Wedding

Dear Mrs. Post: My bridesmaids want to wear strapless evening-type dresses at my wedding. This will be in church in the late afternoon. The idea is, of course, to have stoles of tulle which they will wear on this occasion. Will it be proper or too decolette?

Answer: Stoles in the afternoon are very unsuitable and strapless gowns in church unthinkable! Afternoon dresses as elaborate as you please but not evening dresses at a wedding.

Announcing Engagement at Dinner

Dear Mrs. Post: My parents are giving a large dinner party soon to announce my engagement. Will you please tell me how, and when, the announcement is made, and also by whom?

Answer: Usually toward the end of dinner when the table is cleared for dessert, the father of the bride-to-be rises and proposes a toast, says something such as: "I propose we drink to the health of Mary and the young man she has decided to add permanently to the family, 'John Brown' or, 'To our Mary and her John.'"

China or Paper?

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is going to be married within a month and we are planning to have the reception on our lawn. Under these circumstances, would it be permissible to use fancy paper plates instead of my good china?

Answer: Certainly, if you do it yourself. If you have a caterer, he can bring his china.

How should the young men of a small wedding party be dressed? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Her leaflet E-8, describes small weddings. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT D. LANE

Miss O'Hara Weds
Robert D. Lane
At St. Joseph's

Mary Eileen O'Hara, daughter of Mrs. Leonard E. O'Hara of 123 Green street and the late Mr. O'Hara, became the bride of Robert Daniel Lane, son of Mrs. Clara H. Lane of 78 West O'Reilly street and the late Daniel J. Lane, Sunday afternoon at Saint Joseph's Church. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Stephen P. Connelly, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Edmund J. O'Hara, wore a gown of embroidered Swiss organdy fashioned with a basque bodice, short puffed sleeves and a bateau neckline. Her bouffant skirt was waltz length. A Princess crown of tulle trimmed with seed pearls secured her circular French illusion veil. She carried a nosegay of white roses, marguerites and white delphinium trimmed with white nylon.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Edmund J. O'Hara of East Hartford, Conn., sister-in-law of the bride, wore a gown of white organdy embroidered in azure blue styled with a molded and tucked bodice and a full waltz length skirt. She wore a fitted Spencer with a portrait neckline and a matching half hat and carried a nosegay of yellow marguerites and blue baby's breath.

Best man was William J. Lane of 87 West Pierpont street, a brother of the groom. Ushers were Frank J. O'Hara of Malvern, Pa., and Leonard T. O'Hara of New Paltz, both brothers of the bride.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and palm branches. Mrs. Peter Mancuso, soloist, sang Ave Maria and Mother Beloved, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Rafferty at the organ.

Following the wedding a garden reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs.

George W. Schneider of 90 Dunman avenue. For her wedding journey to the Pocono Mountains the bride wore a two-piece pure silk blue print dress with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride attended Kingston High School and is employed at Schneider's Jewelers, Inc. The groom also attended Kingston High School and is employed at IBM in Poughkeepsie.

Paintings of Area Around Saugerties Will Be Exhibited

Saugerties, July 28—Brother John Poehler, AA lay brother of Assumptionist Fathers, will direct an exhibit of oil paintings depicting scenes in and around the Saugerties area some of which are his work.

The special showing sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. M. Lawrence Carroll, local shoe merchant, will be held at their lodge at the foot of Spaulding Lane on Barclay Heights, Saugerties, on Sunday from 2 to 4 p. m.

Some of the paintings on display will include scenes of The Old Stone Dock Office, Saugerties From Schroeder's Farm and the Mouth of the Esopus. Brother John has been helping decorate the monastery and novitiate of the Assumptionist Fathers at Meadow Side where Father Frederic is superior, assisted by Father Leo Martin and Father Theodore. At present there are 14 choir brothers studying for the priesthood.

Carol Jean Rausch, E. E. Terwilliger Married at Ravena

Nuptials held July 17 in the Ravena Congregational Christian Church united Carol Jean Rausch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rausch of Ravena, and Cpl. Edward E. Terwilliger, son of Mrs. Evelyn Matthews and the late Millard Terwilliger of Wawarsing. The Rev. Stanley Keach performed the double-ring ceremony.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace and net over satin featuring a Queen Ann collar. A jeweled tiara held Miss Rausch's fingertip veil and she carried a prayerbook embellished with a white orchid and streamers of lily of the valley.

Her maid of honor, Miss Linda Rausch, was gown in apple green net over taffeta and carried pink Shasta daisies. The bridesmaids, Miss Dolores Garlick and Miss Edith Marie Terwilliger, were attired in pink.

Millard Terwilliger, Jr., was the best man and Robert Hull and Rudy Hull, ushers. Mrs. Marion Williams played traditional wedding music with Ann Seaburg as soloist.

A lawn reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The newlyweds honeymooned at Niagara Falls and in Canada. On their return they will make their home in Kansas.

Miss Rausch is a former resident of Binnewater and student at New Paltz and is employed in the office of W. M. Whitney and Co. Cpl. Terwilliger is a graduate of Ellenville High School and a former employee of the Ellenville Knife Factory.

Mrs. Gunther Tells Garden Club Lilies 'Leading Ladies'

Mrs. Caspar V. Gunther presented a paper entitled Lilies at the meeting of The Little Garden Club Friday at the Nieuw Dorp in Hurley.

Lilies are the "leading ladies" of the garden and encircle the globe, Mrs. Gunther said, pointing out that they were found in Europe, Asia and America throughout the northern hemisphere.

They are at home from the barren windswept reaches of sub-Arctic Siberia to the hills of southern India and from the island of Luzon in the Philippines to our own Florida, she said.

"From the dawn of civilization lilies appear to have been associated with man," Lilies must have had an aesthetic appeal for remarkably clear pictures of them appear in Cretan pottery made some 2,000 years before Christ. An early Egyptian relief now preserved in Paris shows women gathering lilies to obtain the essential oil. To some of them, notably the Madonna Lily, native to the Mediterranean basin, man ascribed medicinal properties, no less than for food, and we may assume that for this purpose he cultivated the lily.

From Greece the Madonna Lily traveled to Rome where a balm was made from it in the treatment of wounds. The Madonna Lily at the beginning of the Christian Era came to the countries that are now Germany, Holland and England. It was then that it became a symbol of purity and important in religion. Lilies are often mentioned in the Bible. Early Italian and Flemish paintings of the annunciation often show the Angel Gabriel presenting a white lily to the Virgin.

Leonardo da Vinci drew a detailed pencil sketch of the Madonna Lily resembling the old-fashioned type still grown in our gardens today. Soon after the discovery of Canada by Jacques Cartier the lily was brought to Paris and London. The Madonna Lily was grown in English gardens as early as 1600. Recent discoveries of the greatest significance to lily enthusiasts the world over were made by the noted explorer Joseph F. Rock of Harvard University, who succeeded in shipping from Yunnan, China, a large collection of seeds and bulbs. Sending out men from his headquarters near the Tibetan border to points so far distant it took 30 days by pack train to reach them he collected the seeds which arrived in the United States during the latter part of 1948 and the spring of 1949. Some of the seeds and bulbs are now growing at the horticultural experiment station at Beltsville, Md., operated by the Department of Agriculture.

Mrs. Gunther pointed out that as a dependable garden plant the future of the lily was bright.

Mrs. Frederick Snyder and Mrs. Etta Wolven served as hostesses. Mrs. Maud Quimby was in charge of refreshments.

Church Plans Fair, Supper August 11 In Stone Ridge

The annual fair and supper of the Stone Ridge Reformed Church will be held August 11 on the church grounds beginning at 11:30 a. m.

A cafeteria supper will be served at 4:30 p. m. until all have finished. The theme will be a Dutch one, it was said.

The following committees have been appointed by the general chairman, Mrs. Robert Service: Decorations and arrangements, Mrs. Willard Mertine; fancy articles, Mrs. Marlott and Mrs. Irving Cornish; aprons, Mrs. Floyd Gillespie and Mrs. Fred Elmendorf; rugs and greeting cards, Mrs. Frank Brooks and Mrs. Ed Maurer; children's booth, Mrs. Charles Hasbrouck; plants and flowers, Mrs. David Derringer; fruits and vegetables, Mrs. Robert Kelder and Mrs. Francis Davenport; movies, Roy Adelberg; food, Mrs. Croswell Sheeley; cafeteria supper, Mrs. Carl Gazlay, Mrs. Jesse Barnhart, Mrs. Mary Pratt and Mrs. Luther Garrison; dining room, Mrs. William Pratt and Miss Edythe Newkirk, and miscellaneous, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Frank Markel and Mrs. Ed Muller.

Esopus Legion Stars Meet Highland in LL Tourney Opener

Contest Scheduled at 6 At 156th LL Diamond

The 1953 finalists—Town of Esopus Legion and Highland—meet in the opener of this year's District 4 Little League tournament, Thursday at 6 p. m. at Little League Stadium.

Nine teams will vie in the single elimination competition to qualify for the District finals against the winner of the Poughkeepsie tournament.

The winner of the Kingston-Poughkeepsie playoff goes to Ossining for the sectionals on Aug. 12-14.

Teams entered in the Kingston tournament include the all-star arrays from the American and National leagues of the Little League Association, the Esopus Legion League all stars, Saugerties, Glasco, Highland, Ellenville, Pine Bush and Walden.

Finals Aug. 7

The tournament runs through Thursday, Aug. 5, with the playoffs with Poughkeepsie set for Saturday, Aug. 7.

A doubleheader is scheduled Saturday, starting at 1:30 p. m. The evening games are scheduled at 6 p. m., with the finals set for 2 p. m.

In last year's local finals, Esopus Legion defeated Highland, 2 to 1. Poughkeepsie defeated Esopus, 4-3, for the District crown.

The games will be handled by a four-man umpiring staff including Jim Gilfeather, Bob Funcheon, Ray Mayone and Bud Zoller.

Chichelsky Is Scorer

Tournament director, William R. Scully, has appointed Jake Chichelsky official scorer.

The schedule follows: Thursday, July 29—Esopus vs. Highland.

Friday, July 30—Glasco vs. Kingston N.L.

Saturday, July 31—(2)—Saugerties vs. Ellenville; Kingston A.L. vs. Walden.

Monday, Aug. 2—Pine Bush vs. winner game No. 1.

Tuesday, Aug. 3—Winner No. 2 vs. Winner No. 3.

Wednesday, Aug. 4—Winner No. 4 vs. Winner No. 5.

Thursday, Aug. 5—Winner No. 6 vs. Winner No. 7.

Saturday, Aug. 7—Winner of Kingston area vs. winner Poughkeepsie area.

means... in a whiskey!

BUT YOU CAN—AND YOU'LL BE A BETTER JUDGE OF WHISKEY
WHEN YOU READ THESE FACTS

Just what is Proof? Proof is the measure of a whiskey's "strength"—and is just twice a whiskey's "alcoholic content." Most blends are no more than 86 Proof. But Fleischmann's is a full 90 Proof—and this means you get more flavor, more enjoyment in every drink.

Proof determines the amount of taxes collected by the U. S. Government on whiskey. And although Fleischmann pays $1.03 more per case than 86 Proof blends, Fleischmann's costs you less than many brands of lower Proof. No wonder Fleischmann's is America's best blended whiskey value!

Hiltebrants Nip Indians To Tie Lead

National League		Won	Lost
Island Dock	4	1
Hiltebrants	4	1

Miron Lumber	0	5

Hiltebrant's Pirates moved into a first place tie with Island Dock in the National Little League yesterday by tripping Miron Lumber, 3 to 1.

Charlie Fuscario and Ralph Fuoco combined to hold the Indians to two hits and fanned four batters each.

Score in First

The Pirates beat starter Joe Avnet in the first inning, scoring three runs on a hit, three walks and two errors. Avnet and Jack Fisher pitched shutout ball the rest of the way. Avnet fanned four, Fisher 3.

Two walks and Warren Stewart's double enabled Miron's to escape a shutout in the sixth. No player on either side had more than one safety. Besides Stewart, Ralph Fuoco, Frank Bonavita and John Fiore rapped doubles.

The All-Star Team

Hiltebrants Place Five On National All Stars

Hiltebrant Pirates, first half champions of the National Little League, have placed five players on the all-star squad for the District 4 tournament that opens Thursday evening at the Little League diamond.

The Nationals play their first game Friday against the Glasco League all stars.

Representing the Pirates will be Mike Spada, Ralph Fuoco, Doug Mellin, Francis Reid and Paul Turck.

Miron Lumber Indians and Adirondack Trailway Braves placed four each, the Indians landing Thomas Fiore, John Fisher, William Murphy and Richard Sickler.

The Trailways placed Terry Corkery, William Huber, Raymond Radel, Henry Schatzel and Island Dock Tigers, Don Kruszenski.

William Murphy will manage the team, with Lafayette Holstein assisting.

Trade for Vic Wertz Is Paying Dividends For Hank Greenberg

By JOE REICHLER

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Hank Greenberg, whose player deals during the past few years have backfired more often than a 1929 jalopy, finally appears to have found a live one in Vic Wertz. Each day, the slugging outfielder-first baseman looms larger and larger in the Cleveland Indians' pennant plans.

Last night, for instance, Wertz slammed a home run and double and drove in three runs as the Indians whipped Boston 6-3 for their 14th victory over the Red Sox in 15 decisions. Two other games ended in ties.

The triumph boosted the Tribe's lead to 2½ games over the New York Yankees who were shut out by Chicago's Virgil Trucks 4-0.

It was a bad night all around for New York as the St. Louis Cardinals thrashed the Giants 7-4 after Brooklyn's onrushing Dodgers had won a 7-6 slugging bee from the Chicago Cubs. The turn of events caused the Giants' once handsome seven-game bulge over Brooklyn to dwindle to a mere two.

In other games, the Philadelphia Phillies whipped Cincinnati 8-2, Baltimore defeated Washington 7-5 and Philadelphia's Athletics beat Detroit 8-3 after the Tigers had won the opener of the two-night twin bill 3-2. Milwaukee and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

Hitting Over .300

It was a lucky break for the Indians when they acquired Wertz from Baltimore for pitcher Bob Chakales at the start of last month. The bald-headed outfielder, hitting an anemic .202 for the Orioles, didn't figure to be of much help. But since joining the Tribe, the 29-year-old Detroit native has been hitting at a .306 clip. He didn't hit a home run for Cleveland until May 22 but that day he banged two to drive in four runs in a 6-3 victory.

With Al Rosen adding a homer, his 18th, Bob Lemon had an easy time registering his 12th triumph despite yielding 10 hits. Ted Williams failed to hit safely ending his 14-game hitting streak.

Trucks Blanks Yanks

Trucks, the strong-armed Chicago righthander, handcuffed the Yankees with five hits as he turned in his fourth shutout and 14th victory of the season. It was the third straight time he has beaten the world champions. Harry Byrd, who beat the Sox at Yankee Stadium last week, was tagged for eight hits, two each by Phil Cavarretta and Jim Rivera.

The Dodgers, powered by home runs off the bats of Duke Snider and Jackie Robinson gave Don Newcombe an early 6-0 lead but the big righthander lost most of it and it took a neat relief job by Billy Loes to pull the Dodgers through. Hank Sauer smashed his 29th four-bagger for the Cubs.

Wally Moon and Stan Musial led a late St. Louis drive to bring the Cardinals up from a 2-0 deficit to an easy victory over the Giants. Moon, the spectacular rookie centerfielder, smashed four hits including his 10th homer and Musial cracked his 28th four-bagger with two mates aboard as rookie righthander Brooks Lawrence gained his seventh victory in relief.

Roberts Wins 15th

Robin Roberts became the first 15-game winner in the majors as the Phils submerged the Reds under a barrage of home runs. Del Ennis, Bobby Morgan and Danny Schell reached the seats to give the ace righthander an early 8-0 lead.

Sparked by Billy Hunter's triple and two singles, the Orioles snapped Washington's six-game winning streak with a 13-hit attack. Every Baltimore batter hit safely except pitcher Duane Pillette who gained his ninth victory.

Bill Tuttle's ninth-inning single scored Red Wilson with the run that gave Steve Gromek his 12th victory as Detroit grabbed the opener from Philadelphia. The Athletics rapped Ned Garver for 12 of their 13 hits to give Marion Fricano an easy victory in the nightcap.

J. Ferraro Cracks 726 For Record

Bob Peterson Ties Solo Mark With 277

Johnny Ferraro was thinking in terms of an "800" series at the end of two games in last night's Summer Classic League shooting at the Bowldrome.

He had powdered 269 and 252 and needed 279 to crack the "800" circle. But he settled for 205 and a new high series record of 726.

Tom Carlino shot 662 with highs of 226 and 244. Bob Peterson tied the high single mark of 277 and tripled 637.

Other top bracket scores included Whitey Crispell's 214-200-203-617, Bill Lawrence 244-612, Larry Petersen 206-211-604, Jack Ferraro 231-596, Hy Arlensky 224-585, Charlie Brooks 248-583, Buter Ferraro 210-582, Bob Jones 212-582, George Robinson 206-576, Dick Howard 572.

Team results: Van Dusen's 3, Rapps 0; Whitey's Drive-in 3, Jones Dairy 0; Saugerties Five 2, Chery's 1; Secreto's 2, Miron Lumber 1; Amell's Yankees 3, Manhattan Balls 0; Greco Bros. 2, Minasian Market 1.

Stenographer Boosts Hambletonian Chances

Vernon, July 28 (AP)—Stenographer continues to boost her stock as a favorite for harness racing's annual Hambletonian classic.

The fast-flying daughter of Bill Gallon won both dashes of the Flora Temple filly stake for 3-year-old trotters at Vernon Downs last night.

The victories were Stenographer's seventh and eight in 13 starts this season. She is owned by Max C. Hempt of Mechanicsburg, Pa., and was driven by Del Miller, her trainer.

Gardner Hanover set a world's record for the three-quarter-mile pace last night, winning the WIBX of Utica trophy in 1:28. The old mark of 1:28.1 was set by Hersey Hanover at Vernon Downs July 17.

Lord Steward Wins

Baltimore, July 28 (AP)—Lord Steward, 7-year-old bay owned by Ralph Kroening of Milwaukee, Wis., won his second race in a week at Baltimore Raceway by taking the $10,000 Baltimore trot last night. Lord Steward paid $6, $2.60, $2.40 and went the mile in 2:05.

Jones Dairy Triumphs Over Dobler Nine, 5-1

Hinkley Hurls 2-Hitter, Misasi Has Three RBIs

City League

Team	Won	Lost
Nadler Motors	1	0
Jones Dairy	1	0
Doblers	1	1
N. Y. Panthers	0	1
Olive Merchants	0	1

It looks like the same old story in the second half of the City Baseball League.

Doblers were dreaming of a second round bunting when they came to grips with the first half champions yesterday at the Athletic Field.

Then it happened, as it always does in the twilight league. Red Hinkley pitched a strong five-hitter and undefeated Dairymen were off and winging, 5 to 1, toward a sweep of both halves.

An unearned run robbed Hinkley of a shutout in the second inning when Joe Shattan singled, stole second and scored on Mike Carlino's wild pitch of Gerry Bechtold's infield roller.

Jones scored in four different innings against Bechtold. Darkness halted the contest in the sixth.

Big Sal Misasi, who recently returned from the Brooklyn Dodger farm at Hornell, N. Y., knocked in three Jones Dairy runs with a single and double.

Score in First

Misasi drove in his first run in the first with a single behind a walk to Nippy Jones and a hit batsman—Mike Carlino. It went to 2-0 in the second when Red Gorsline walked, Bob Sheltner singled him to third and Bill Glaser threw into centerfield trying to nab Sheltner on a steal.

Jones loaded the bases in the third on walks to Nippy Jones, Tom Carlino and Misasi but Bechtold escaped damage when Ronnie Mauro lined into a double play and a runner was picked off base.

Misasi's second walk, giving him two hits and two strolls in four times to the plate, and

Nadlers Sign Tommy Fisher

Nadler Motors have signed one of the City League's all-time pitching greats—Tommy Fisher — to bolster their chances for the second half title. The former Jones Dairy ace makes his 1954 debut Thursday against undefeated Jones Dairy. He has been pitching in the Poughkeepsie city league.

Mauro's double accounted for a Jones tally in the fifth.

Two more counted in the sixth as Misasi doubled with the bases loaded.

Olive Merchants play the New York Panthers in today's game at 6:15 p. m.

St. Mary's Girls in Finals Of Archdiocesan Tourney

Ray Billows Fails to Make U. S. Amateur

New York, July 28 (AP) — A former National Junior champion from Amarillo, Tex., Rex Baxter, Jr., fired a torrid 133 to lead a near record field yesterday for qualifying berths in the National Amateur golf tournament.

Competing at the 6,233 yard par 71 Lubbock Country Club course Baxter cut nine strokes off par as he toured the layout in 69-64.

He topped more than 1,200 aspirants at 38 qualifying sites. The Amateur championship will be played at the Country Club of Detroit Aug. 23-28 with 173 qualifiers coming from yesterday's rounds plus 27 exempt golfers.

Two of the east's leading players were casualties, Joe Gagliardi of New York, a finalist in 1951 and Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, who has been in the final round three times.

Well Split Up

Only one jockey has ever won more than one running of the Monmouth Park Handicap. William Hayward won on Drake Carter in 1884 and repeated in 1889 on Eurus.

St. Mary's Met division Ulster county softball champions have qualified for the Archdiocesan finals against the Rockland-Orange county champions, Sunday at Haverstraw.

The locals scored seven runs in the fourth inning and clinched the game with two tallies in the seventh.

Audrey Cherny, the St. Mary's pitcher, blanked the 'Incarnation team of the Bronx in the last two innings to gain a 9-8 squeaker. She allowed seven hits and fanned four.

Rae Gadd Stars

St. Mary's collected 10 hits off the Bronx pitcher, including doubles by Patricia Perry and Rae Gadd.

In the big fourth inning rally, Rae Gadd hit a double and single. Joan Erena, Patricia Perry, Joyce Domanico, Carmela Alecca and Kay Barry singled in succession.

The score:

St. Mary's .. 000 700 2-9 10 3
Bronx 200 330 0-8 7 2

Audrey Cherny and Rae Gadd, Carroll and Penny.

In Findlay, Ohio, recently the Businessmen's Bowling League reported a "night of horror." There were 295 splits and 27 of the 36 team games were below average. Excuse given: New wood.

Mrs. Kelly Wins Twaalfskill Events

Mrs. William A. Kelly won both ends of the putting and approaching contests staged by Twaalfskill women for their Ladies Day competition yesterday.

She pitched her approach shot 3 feet 10 inches from the cup to win that event, then toured nine holes with regulation 18 putts.

Second place in the pitching contest went to Mrs. Robert Umpleby at 4 feet 2 inches. Mrs. Robert Russell was third at 5 feet 10 inches.

There was a four-way tie for second place in the putting contest at 20 strokes among Mrs. Robert Russell, Mrs. Edward Minasian, Mrs. Lester Tocks and Mrs. William T. Fuller. In the playoffs, Mrs. Russell took second place and Mrs. Tocks third.

Big Sal "Moose" Misasi's experience with the Dodger chain farm team at Hornell in the Pony League is enough to discourage the average youngster who envisions a major league career.

The former all-round athletic star at Saugerties High was signed by the Brooks last summer and given a modest bonus. Although a pitcher by trade, it was presumed the Brooks would convert him into an outfielder because of his long-ball power.

Misasi reported to the Pony League farm and languished on the bench for more than three weeks before he was given expense money and one-way ticket back to Glasco. He recalls hitting some balls pretty well in limited batting drills but he never saw a minute of action in a league game. He reports an influx of Class A players into Hornell in a desperate effort to save a sagging franchise. This situation wasn't designed to help the raw rookies bursting for a chance to show their stuff.

The Glasco youth hasn't lost all hope. He has a chance to go south with either the St. Louis Cardinals or the N. Y. Giants next spring training trip and probably will select the Giants.

Birdies and Bogies:

This may come under the heading of an impertinent question, but why don't N. LeVan Haver and John Egan, the Woodstock barrister, get together and arrange that shooting match Egan so devoutly desires. The one that would involve Harry Burns and a Woodstock partner against George Hughes and Alvin Boice of Twaalfskill. Burns, a boyhood amateur whiz who still shoots a powerful game, is quoted as saying he would be willing to meet Hughes and a partner in a $10 Nassau match. The county-city-Twaalfskill champion—Hughes—would hardly run away from such a challenge and Boice would be willing to go along. However, some small details surrounding the match, such as a light luncheon after the duel, could be easily handled by Messrs. Egan and Haver, who might entertain divergent opinions on the outcome. Add eagle experts at Wiltwyck: Mrs. Irma Dudyk, who holed out across the brook on the No. 4 hole and Roy Vogt, who scored an incredible seven on the rugged No. 3 with a long 5-wood shot. This historic shot was witnessed by Chick Henion, Herm Roosa and Ralph E. Gardner, who is vacation-bound for Miami.

An Ode to Amazin' Willie:

Notwithstanding the New York Giants' current difficulties and the young man's personal slump of the moment, Giant fans will find the lyrics of the new song, "Say, Hey" appealing and interesting.

When Willie served his Uncle Sam
He left the Giants in an awful jam
But now that he's back, he's Leo Joy
And Willie's just a growing boy
He runs the bases like a choo-choo train
Swings 'round like an air-o-plane
His cap flies off as he passes third,
And he heads home like an eagle bird!
When he hits the ball, it's long gone, man
He hits further than Campy can.
He swings the bat like a lit-tle pipe
When they reach the agate, it's over-ripe.
He covers center like he has jet shoes
The other batters just get those Willie Blues*

Westbury, July 28 (AP)—Stanley Dancer drove three winners at Roosevelt Raceway last night, including Prospectus in the featured Northport Trot.

Prospectus, a 4-year-old owned by Kyler F. Lunman of Adams, N. Y., was the 8-5 favorite and paid $5.70, $3.40 and $2.80 after going the mile in 2:08.1. Hadley Hanover was second and Our Birthday third.

Earlier, Dancer had both halves of the daily double with Mystic Key in the first race and Mr. Prince Dale in the second.

Harbert Wins PGA

St. Paul, Minn., July 28 (AP)—At the age of 39, with the years beginning to show in greying hair and a slight paunch, Chick Harbert yesterday won his first National golf title.

Harbert, one-time boy wonder now a part-time tournament player and vice president of a golf club manufacturing concern, said before the PGA tournament began:

"If I reach the final I'll probably make the same damned mistakes I did when I went to the finals before."

It looked as if that prediction might come true when Chick knocked his second shot of the 1954 PGA final against his suburban Detroit neighbor, Wally Burkemo, out of bounds into a cornfield.

For three holes he was the same old Chick, the fellow who could hit them a mile but often hit a half mile into the rough. He was under a tree on the second hole, but recovered. He fought the rough and buried his ball in a sandtrap for a double bogey seven on the third. And when Burkemo birdied the fourth, Wally was three up and well on the way to a successful defense of the title he won last year.

That's when Harbert started playing the kind of golf of which he is capable. The next 30 holes, he never was over par and he lost only two of them. At the finish it was Chick who came out on top by a 4 and 3 margin.

It was the ninth time Harbert had tried for the PGA title and his third trip to the finals.

Lefty Joe Clark pitched the Lions Club to its first American Little League victory since June 14, with a four-hit, 4 to 1, decision over Electrol yesterday at the 156th FA diamond.

The Lions scored twice in the first and twice in the fifth to give Clark the verdict over Don Dittus and Walt Harder. Clark aided his own cause by rapping a single and double in the cleanup spot. He was the only player on either side with more than one hit.

Paul Gardner and Don Dittus hit doubles for the Electrol.

Saugerties, July 28—Myron Banks, president of the Saugerties Lions Club during the regular meeting held at the Flamingo Restaurant Monday evening announced the names designated as committee chairmen for 1954-1955.

Those named are Ben Fein, attendance; Franklin P. Clum, constitution and by-laws; Fabian L. Russell, finance; John C. Sauer, Lions information; Bertram W. Burns, publicity; Joseph Rose, membership; Joseph Vozdik, convention; William Plimley and John Kerns, program; Steve Stycos, citizenship and patriotism; John Carnright, bulletin editor; Robert Carnright, boys and girls; John C. Sauer, civic improvement; Andrew Vozdik, community betterment; Rodney Ball, education; Nathan Aaron, health and welfare; M. Lawrence Carroll, safety; James J. Dargan, sight conservation and the blind; Fabian Russell, United Nations; Hugo Knauert, greeter, and Arthur Simmons, agricultural.

The group also voted to hold a family clam bake scheduled tentatively for Sunday, Sept. 12, at Joe Wipper's in Cedar Grove.

Cub Pack 130 HoldsGame Farm Meeting

Saugerties, July 28—The Family Picnic, cubbing theme of the month, was observed by Cub Pack 130, VFW, Sunday afternoon at the Catskill Game Farm where the regular meeting of the pack was held.

The Cub Pack with leaders and parents numbering 38 viewed the animals and enjoyed the play area. The business meeting was held in the pine grove on the grounds where the various awards were presented.

Arthur Russell received his Bob Cat card and pin. Denner Stobbs were presented to William Brackett, Roscoe Frantz, and Bruce Ormandy. Assistant denner stripes were given to Hilton Long, Glen Van Valkenburg, and Arthur Russell.

Pack 130 Cubbing Award of the Month was presented to Mrs. Ruth Brackett who has three sons in Scouting. A special commendation ribbon was presented to her for this distinction and the Cubs gave her the "grand howl." This award, a recent innovation of Pack 130, will be made to some deserving person who has helped to promote cubbing or has done some outstanding service in Pack 130.

Scouting leaders in attendance included William Ormandy, Cubmaster; Hubert Legg, assistant Cubmaster, and Den Mothers Eva Mae Peck, Gladys Legg, Winnie Simmons and May Ormandy.

Leader of Pack 130Receives Blue Ribbon

Saugerties, July 28—Hubert Legg, assistant Cubmaster of Pack 130, VFW, this week received a letter of thanks from national Scouting headquarters and a blue ribbon certificate for outstanding contribution to Cub Scouting.

Legg composed and introduced the Cub Scouting recruiting song, a copy of which was sent to the national director of Cub Scouting Service. The song was first introduced at the district air show presented by the Cub Scouts of the Saugerties area last month at Cantine Memorial Field. In the letter to Legg, headquarters said that the song would be made available to leaders in Cub Scouting throughout the nation.

Legg has composed many cub scouting songs which are popular.

Wins Scouting Award

Saugerties, July 28—Cub Pack 130, VFW, sponsors of a parcel post sale conducted last Saturday in Ackerman's Market announced the name of the winner of the bean guessing contest conducted during the sale. Mrs. William Ormandy, den mother in charge of the sale said that the winner was J. H. Sidomos of 1800 Albemarle road, Brooklyn. His guess of 789 beans came the closest to the actual count of 754. The prize, a pen and pencil and ballpoint set, was forwarded by mail to the winner.

Encampment Planned For Explorer Scouts

Saugerties, July 28—One of the outstanding Explorer events of the year will be the fourth annual Explorer encampment in October at Sampson Air Force Base.

This high adventure is planned for the weekend of October 8, 9, and 10 and is available to all Explorer Scouts and their advisors. Immediate registration is necessary. Last year over 1,000 Explorers from Region 2 participated. This year reservations will again be on a first come—first served basis.

The program will include field sports, including archery, mosquito and canoeing practices, hours on freedom, survival techniques, air defense, expedition opportunities; swimming and drill orientation and a big show featuring base and Scout personnel. This show is scheduled for Saturday evening and a huge review and parade will be held Sunday morning. For those arriving early on Friday evening a special film showing will be presented.

The Scouts will be transported by chartered bus which are limited to 35 Explorers plus leadership. Reservations should be made immediately to the Council Office in Kingston. Official Air, Sea, or Explorer uniforms will be worn. Explorers will not be admitted on Base without official uniforms.

Explorer Scouts of the Saugerties area should advise District Commissioner William Plimley if they intend making the trip to Sampson.

Bazaar Is Scheduled

Saugerties, July 28—The Glasco Fire Department has announced that it will again sponsor the annual fireworks display and bazaar scheduled for Saturday, August 28. Chairman Anthony Bruno announced that a fund raising campaign has been undertaken by the firemen and that more than $200 has already been received. He said their would be no booster program or fund raising gimmicks other than an out-and-out contribution.

The campaign will continue until the night of the bazaar which will leave sufficient time for sending in contributions. The funds realized from the bazaar will be used to help defray expenses for the renovation of the firehouse.

Church Fair Listed

Saugerties, July 28—The annual church fair of the High Woods Reformed Church will be held on Labor Day. The grounds will be officially opened at noon and festivities will continue through out the afternoon and evening. A roast beef dinner will be served and booths set up for patrons of the church.

To Hold Gypsy Bazaar

Saugerties, July 28—The Trinity Church Gypsy Bazaar to be held on Wednesday, Aug. 4, will feature a turkey supper, serving at 5:30 and 6:30 p. m. The usual display booths and amusement concessions will be set up on the grounds.

Boy Scout NewsTroop 19 to Meet

The regular weekly meeting of Boy Scout Troop 19, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held at 7 p. m. on Thursday of this week at the VFW Home at 552 Delaware avenue.

Troop 19, in the process of organization for the past month, normally meets on Wednesday evenings of each week. The Thursday date for this week was set due to the regular Cub Pack meeting held on the last Wednesday of each month.

Carl Wiegert is scoutmaster of Troop 19, with Wendell Nason as assistant. Openings for membership in the new troop are available, and all interested boys who are 11 years of age or over are invited to visit the VFW Home on Thursday evening, July 29.

To Build Bridge

Ankara, Turkey, July 28 (P)—Turkey and Greece are going to build the Balkans' longest bridge across the Maritza river between the two NATO allies. The 2,600-foot steel and concrete structure will have 35 spans. It will cost the equivalent of about 1½ million dollars.

Rhee Proposes

munist problem in Europe, Africa and America.

To Lull Americans

Rhee told Congress the essence of Soviet strategy for world conquest is to lull Americans into a "sleep of death by talking peace until the Soviet Union possesses enough hydrogen bombs and intercontinental bombers to pulverize the airfields and productive centers of the United States by sneak attack."

After a White House conference with President Eisenhower yesterday, Rhee said bluntly he saw no possibility of achieving Korean unity by peaceful means. "Before his talk to Congress Rhee planned to see Secretary of State Dulles to continue the conference begun yesterday on Korean problems."

Dulles' Problem

Dulles had the problem of reconciling Rhee to the American position: Unification of Korea by military means is not practical at the present time. By peaceful means it appears remote. But it remains a fixed goal of U. S. policy.

Diplomatic sources reported the United States would assure Rhee of continued military and economic assistance. "The American view was said to be that security and economic aid would be far more desirable than the fresh destruction which would occur in any renewal of the war to drive the Communists from North Korea."

Military and economic talks started yesterday at the Pentagon and the Foreign Operations Administration. How successful these will be depends in part on Rhee's attitude toward the American position, an informant said.

New Hurley

New Hurley, July 28—Miss Susanna Denniston attended the wedding of Miss Lois Marion Hasbrouck and Dr. Francis Albert Simpson at the Brick Reformed Church in Montgomery Saturday, July 17.

Clara Butler of New York city is spending a few days at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Karey entertained relatives from Canada at their home during the past week.

The Rev. and Mrs. John W. Tyse and family spent the weekend at Wolf Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Denniston entertained relatives and friends at a dinner party at the Fairview near East Walden Saturday evening.

Nancy Wilkin is spending two weeks at Girl Scout Camp Wendy.

A large crowd attended the New Hurley Church fair which was held at the Schoonmaker cooler. A fine cafeteria supper was served to over 300. There were various booths consisting of home-baked food, fancy work and soft drinks.

There will be regular preaching services next Sunday at 11 a. m. in charge of the pastor, the Rev. John W. Tyse. Sunday school at 10. All are welcome.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Edw. Sutton Wednesday afternoon, August 4, at 2:30.

Gambler Says

saying he was "available and willing to testify" at the trial. "There is not one shred of truth in what this man has testified concerning me and I will answer it," he declared.

Colwell and Kennedy appeared at the afternoon session yesterday.

The former mayor asked to take the stand immediately "for the opportunity under oath of denying" Goldstein's statement.

Although many furs come from the tropics, the largest modern supplies come from cold climates.

Would you take a chance on a store clerk fitting your new eyeglasses?

Hearing aids must be fitted, too, though many manufacturers cheapen their instruments by leaving out fitting controls, attempting to justify it with the claim that fittings are unnecessary. Government agencies and medical clinics, however, insist on the practice of fitting hearing aids as a regular part of their service to the hard of hearing.

Sonotone Hearing Aid Consultants are trained in measurement and fitting techniques. As with glasses, your instrument is tailored to your particular needs. This removes guesswork and is your assurance of the best in better hearing—the first time.

First Shaw Satire Woodstock Play, Widowers' Houses

Woodstock, July 28—No summer theatre ever quite settles its seasonal straw hat at the proper angle without a dip in salute to the old master playwright, George Bernard Shaw. This week the Woodstock Playhouse harks back to Shaw's first satirical drama, Widowers' Houses, first premiered in London in 1892. The choice of one of his lesser known plays is fortunate in that it reveals that the earliest efforts of the revered author contained his unquestionable facility. With swift, darting strokes he unmasks a fool, subdues a vixen, punctures the soft, comfortable cushioning of the privileged classes, and as final proof of his sharp wit and wisdom, not a line of it seems dated today.

No little credit to the successful presentation of the Shaw play is owing to director Michael Howard and his thoroughly able company. Shaw is no easy task to bring to plausible life; so much is implied and if properly handled, as it is here, so much is left to the imagination.

Romance Almost Wrecked To bring about an acceptable engagement between the tempestuous Blanche Sartorius and the conscientious young Dr. Harry Trench, requires the tactful intervention of the garrulous William de Burgh Cokane. The sordid source from which her father's income is derived almost wrecks the romance, but Shaw manages to talk, if heatedly at times, everyone out of his difficulties.

Jane Lloyd-Jones is ideal as the haughty and frequently enraged Blanche Sartorius, and Bernard Kates is entirely convincing as the young Doctor Trench on the horns of a dilemma between love and his conscience. The impression persists that in the future her tantrums will avail her little. Nimbly fencing on the outskirts and out of range of the shafts, but always on hand to offer advice William Darrid as Cokane keeps things moving at a sparkling pace. Not quite sinister, a little pathetic, the avaricious landlord Sartorius is played with finesse by Frank Daly.

ance was given by Michael Lewin as the hapless Mr. Lickchese in the second act, when he exposes the methods of Sartorius. Many theatregoers who are drawn to a drama of the present day, such as Mr. Roberts, presented at the Playhouse earlier this season, might be deterred by the Shaw of 1892. But what he has to say is as good, as true and as brittle and funny as when it rocked London audiences over half a century ago.

An ambitious production, it requires three settings by designer Robert Jilison, who has skillfully reproduced two spacious rooms one of a London house of the 1880's, and a library of a villa at Surbiton.

Rogers: Service Is Real 'Salary'

New York, July 28 (P)—J. S. Rogers, FBI inspector in charge of training and inspection, says low pay and other discouraging working conditions might cause a policeman to inquire: "Why do we stay in police work?" His answer is that a sense of service to a community—or the heartfelt gratification of a mother who has a lost child restored to her—values that add "more to the job of being a policeman than meets the eye."

Rogers spoke yesterday at the opening of the three-day 54th Annual Conference of the New York State Assn. of Chiefs of Police. Six hundred law enforcement officers from 200 New York communities are attending.

Army Worms Are

from Cattaraugus and Steuben counties.

The army worm is from one to two inches long. It is brown in color with white stripes lengthwise down its back. It usually comes out in the open at night and feeds on growing things. During the day, it burrows into the ground.

Experts at the station here said air dusting was most effective against the worm, although insecticides used in ground sprays also was good.

The voracious, night-raiding worm is damaging struggling corn crops in at least 13 counties—Ontario, Oswego, Cayuga, Wayne, Yates, Broome, Erie, Niagara, Orleans, Oneida, Tompkins, Cattaraugus and Steuben.

No Local Infestation

Ulster county farmers, like many others throughout the east have been plagued by drouth this summer but one damaging factor which has become prominent in at least three up-state counties has not yet arrived in Ulster county to damage crops. That is the "army worm" which is particularly damaging to crops.

The county agent in Sullivan county has reported considerable damage there from the army worm but William H. Palmer, Ulster County Farm Bureau director, reported today that Ulster county appeared at present to have escaped this pest. The worm is particularly prolific during dry spells.

Police indicated today that the money and checks scheduled for the deposit were recovered. William D. Brinnier appeared for the district attorney's office in city court this morning.

Pays $50 Fine

James Bodien, 21, of Staten Island was picked up by state police in the town of Olive yesterday on a charge of improper plates on a motor vehicle. Taken before Justice of the Peace Frank Carle a $50 fine or 30 days in jail was imposed. The fine was paid.

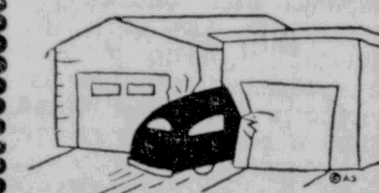

Wrong Price Given

In the Kingston Specialty Co., Inc., advertisement in Tuesday's issue of The Freeman, the RCA Victor model Arlen was incorrectly priced. The price is $259.95. The Radnor model sells for $339.95, this also was advertised incorrectly.

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: My neighbor's garage and mine are close together and he built a driveway between them to the rear of his property. The other day his wife backed out of this driveway and wedged the car between the garages, doing considerable damage to both. Will his Property Damage insurance cover the loss?

ANSWER: His insurance will cover the damage to your garage but not to his own. See a good insurance agent for a thorough interpretation.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.

Crevice Develops At Niagara Falls

Niagara Falls, July 28 (P)—A narrow crevice developed today in the rock and lawn at Prospect Point, famous observation area at the brink of the American Falls, and the area was roped off in fear that segment might collapse into the Niagara gorge.

A member of the staff of the Niagara Frontier State Park Commission said the crack started at the edge of the river about 50 feet upstream from the brink and shot straight inland about 50 or 60 feet. He said it was probably about three inches wide.

Engineers immediately began a detailed survey to determine the extent of the damage.

Hard to Figure

The staff member said it would be "pretty hard to say" before the survey how much danger there was of a serious rock collapse.

He said the trouble was first noticed last night, when water seepage increased in the elevator shaft down through the rock to the Maid of the Mist landing at the foot of the 170-foot high escarpment.

Pumps have been installed at the base of the shaft to keep down the water and the elevator has been closed to the public. The official said "we associate the water in the shaft with the crevice."

The crack extended toward the building at the top of the elevator shaft, which is about 200 feet from the river edge.

Bus Service Will Assist Bathers

Thomas J. Gadd, vice president and general manager of the Kingston City Transportation Corp., today announced that bus service would be extended to the Kingston Point Beach during the hours it is open to the public.

Mayor Frederick H. Stang said it is tentatively planned to have the beach fully conditioned by next week-end or the first of next week. It is scheduled to be open from 10 a. m. to 8:30 p. m., daily.

Gadd said it is planned to run buses of the Hasbrouck avenue line to the beach on weekdays and the Broadway line there on Sundays and holidays.

Work began last Thursday on the reconditioning of the beach after Mayor Stang, who noticed that it was being used considerably without proper facilities and protection, proposed its operation as a city project. The Board of Public Works last Wednesday authorized its development as a recreation facility.

In 1953 people in Connecticut made an average of 3,871,000 telephone calls a day.

Thruway Bids Asked for Link

Albany, July 28 (P)—The Thruway Authority today called for bids on the first two jobs in a project to extend the superhighway from Buffalo to the Pennsylvania state line.

Bertram D. Tallamy, authority chairman, said bids on the two projects, involving 19.2 miles, would be opened Aug. 19. The total cost of the two jobs is estimated at $11,044,000.

The specifications call for construction of 6.54 miles of the thruway in Chautauque county, from the Fredonia-Dunkirk area to a point south of Silver creek, and for 6.35 miles from Silver creek to a point just north of Cattaraugus creek in Erie county.

Stone House Day

Esopus Indians burned the settlement of Kingston (Wiltwyck) and Hurley (Nieuw Dorp) in 1663.

After three months, Dutch troops, aided by the husbands and fathers found the captives at the Indian fort at Shawangunk.

According to legend, the women and children were about to be burned, having been brought forward to a pile of faggots when Catherine DuBois, heroine of the legend, thinking that a song might delay the Indians and keep up the spirits of the group, began to sing the 137th Psalm.

First View of Valley

Deliverance came, and upon the journey back to Wiltwyck, the Huguenots saw the Wallkill valley and the site of what was to be their home by 1678 (New Paltz).

Two Pay Fines After Car Burns

At 1:35 a. m. today a car of Alton Green of 151 Mansion street, Poughkeepsie, operated by Melvin A. Galloway of 140 1/2 Church street, Poughkeepsie, and Jackie W. Wright of 95 1/2 Mansion street, Poughkeepsie, caught fire on Route 9W a mile north of Highland when the car went out of control and crossed the center isle of the road. The Highland fire department was summoned and extinguished the fire but the car was badly damaged.

State police from Highland arrested Galloway on two charges, one of not having a license and also having no insurance. He paid $10 fines on each charge when taken before Justice Gruner. Also arrested was Jackie E. Wright who was charged with being an unlicensed operator and he paid a $10 fine.
